La dimension extérieure de l'espace de liberté, de sécurité et de justice de l'Union européenne après le Traité de Lisbonne Catherine Flaesch-Mougin, Lucia Serena Rossi, 2013-04-03 Le présent ouvrage est le résultat d'une recherche conjointe entre les Universités de Bologne, Rennes et Bruxelles sur le thème de la dimension extérieure de l'espace de liberté, de sécurité et de justice de l'Union européenne ELSJ Cette recherche a été soutenue par la Commission européenne dans le cadre de l'Action Jean Monnet. Il associe des professeurs et chercheurs de renom qui conjuguent leurs compétences et situent leur analyse à l'intersection des politiques internes et des politiques externes de l'Union européenne. Les auteurs valuent de manière critique l'impact du traité de Lisbonne et de la pratique de l'Union concernant la dimension extérieure de l'ELSJ. Cette dimension dont l'importance ne cesse de croître oblige l'Union à concilier des impératifs parfois contradictoires entre les objectifs sécuritaires de l'ELSJ ou ceux de l'action extérieure ou encore avec les valeurs sur lesquelles elle est fondée. Les auteurs tentent de répondre à différentes questions induites par le nouveau système de représentation extérieure de l'Union dans le domaine de l'ELSJ. Quelles sont les retombées juridiques du nouveau système ? Quel est également son impact politique ? Ne risque-t-on pas une incursion croissante de la politique étrangère et de sécurité commune PESC dans les aspects sécuritaires de l'ELSJ ?

They Won't Take No for an Answer Elizabeth Ayre, 1996 The Bernard van Leer Foundation initiated a program in France entitled Relais Enfants Parents to bring the children of prisoners to the forefront of social, political, and judicial policy. The Relais Enfants Parents program works to safeguard the psychological and emotional development of children by serving as a link between them and their imprisoned parents. The program tries to preserve and often to recreate the bond between the children and their parents, which separation often weakens. This book shows how Relais Enfants Parents came into existence with initial resistance from the penal system and doubt from imprisoned parents. The book presents the rationale behind the creation of the program and describes a pilot program that evolved since 1972. Strategies are presented that are used to strengthen parent-child relationships, fortify parent roles, and help children overcome the stressful experience of a first visit to an imprisoned parent. The significance of volunteers, their training, roles, and contributions to helping these children to become a part of the society.

The Spatiotemporal Eschatology of Hebrews Luke Woo,2024-07-11 There are two coexisting realities classified under New Testament eschatology the temporal and spatial While much scholarly attention has focused on the temporal Luke Woo argues that the spatial aspect is either neglected or relegated to Platonic or cosmological categories Woo thus seeks to provide a holistic understanding by investigating these realities for believers under the heavenly tabernacle motif in the Epistle to the Hebrews Woo posits that the author of Hebrews presents the heavenly tabernacle and all its high priestly activity in order to eschatologically situate orient and ground believers thus enabling believers to actualize their heavenly priestly identity by serving as priests on earth Woo uses Edward Soja s Tripartite Critical Spatiality to analyze the heavenly tabernacle s Firstspace Secondspace and Thirdspace features found in Hebrews 4 14 8 1 5 9 1 14 He suggests that Christ in his resurrection and ascension enters an actualized heavenly tabernacle which allows believers to spiritually occupy that sanctuary space in the presence of God establishing a spatial orientation for believers who can identify as heavenly priests and be motivated to serve as such as they live on earth Bibliographie du Québec ,1999 The Politics of Institutional Failure in Madagascar's Third Republic Richard R. Marcus,2016-02-10 Madagascar s constitution of August 19 1992 brought hope to a population exhausted by economic failures associated with a failed experiment in scientific socialism and years of mismanagement The repetition of transparent elections and the promulgation of good governance in the years that followed appeared to serve as an indicator of institutional strengthening and by extension progress Unfortunately a broader institutional analysis points toward a series of shocks to the political system by way of legal but highly detrimental juridical and constitutional shifts to the system These shocks were meant to serve particularized political networks with long clientalistic roots and were made possible by the narrow vision of institutionalism that did not take careful stock of those networks or the leaders at the top of them Little effort was made to look beyond a legislature brought in by careful elections but producing legislation serving individuals the ways in which inchoate political parties distort institutional outcomes and the potential for institutionalization the weakness of civil society to offer opportunities for popular engagement or the use of donor funded decentralization programs to build ministries that served as powerful and rapid proxies for leadership centralization By the time the celebrated president Marc Ravalomanana was overthrown in March 2009 it became clear that there were few opportunities to seed political opposition and such limited space between individual leaders and primary institutions of public management that critical state functions immediately began to unravel In this book the author considers the institutions of the Third Republic how they formed and why they looked like models for democratic change before turning to consider how the institutions themselves have been manipulated in plain sight by leaders looking to champion their own networks He concludes that the rise of the Fourth Republic in 2010 did little to address these underlying concerns and argues that a new agenda is in order to consider not just the way in which institutions form but the way in which networks of power and leaders at the top of those networks grow and change malleable institutions in young democracies with few avenues of accountability
