These stimulating instructive movie clips will encourage discussion and reflection on important themes including courage communication change conflict creativity and leadership Media Control Robert E. Gutsche, Jr.,2017-04-20 Media Control News as an Institution of Power and Social Control challenges traditional and even some radical perceptions of how the news works While it s clear that journalists don t operate objectively reporters don t just cover news but they make it Media Control goes a step further by arguing that the cultural institution of news approaches and presents everyday information from particular and dominant cultural positions that benefit the power elite From analysing how the press operate as police agents by conducting surveillance and instituting social order through its coverage of crime and police action to bolstering private business and neoliberal principles by covering the news through notions of boosterism Media Control presents the news through a cultural lens Robert E Gutsche Jr introduces or advances readers applications of critical race theory and cultural studies scholarship to explore cultural meanings within news coverage of police action the criminal justice system and embedding into the news democratic values that are later used by the power elite to oppress and repress portions of the citizenry Media Control helps the reader explicate how the power elite use the press and the veil of the Fourth Estate to further white ideologies and American Imperialism Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewitt Wheeler,Isaac Kaufman Funk,William Seaver Woods,1920

Materializing Memories Susan Aasman,Andreas Fickers,Joseph Wachelder,2018-08-23 A multitude of devices and technological tools now exist to make share and store memories and moments with family friends and even strangers Memory practices such as home movies which originated as the privilege of a few well to do families have now emerged as ubiquitous and immediate cultures of sharing Departing from the history of home movies this volume offers a sophisticated understanding of technologically mediated mostly ritualized memory practices from early beginnings in the fin de si cle to today Departing from a longue dur e perspective on home movie practices Materializing Memories moves beyond a strict historical study to grapple with highly theorized fields such as media studies memory studies and science and technology studies STS The contributors to this volume reflect on these different intellectual backgrounds and perspectives but all chapters share a common framework by addressing practices of use user configurations and relevant media landscapes Grasping the cultural dynamics of such multi faceted practices requires a multidimensional conceptual approach here achieved by centering around three concepts as central analytical lenses dispositifs generations and amateurs
