Forestry Economics John E. Wagner,2023-12-22 Forestry Economics introduces students and practitioners to the economics of managing forests and forest enterprises The book adopts the approach of managerial economics textbooks and applies this to the unique problems and production processes faced by managers of forests and forest enterprises What many future forest and natural resource managers need is to understand what economic information is and how to use it to make better business and management decisions John E

Wagner draws on his 30 years of experience teaching and working in the field of forest resource economics to present students with an accessible understanding of the unique production processes and problems faced by forest and other natural resource managers. The second edition has been updated to include Expanded discussion of compounding discounting and capital budgeting as well as an expanded discussion of when to replace a capital asset that has i costs but no direct revenue stream such as a machine ii costs and a direct annual revenue stream such as a solar array or iii costs and a periodic revenue stream illustrated by the forest rotation problem. New practical examples to provide students with applications of the concepts being discussed in the text most notably on New Zealand and a Radiata Pine Pinus radiata Plantation. A brand new chapter that develops business plans for for profit businesses to illustrate how a business plan is derived from the economic information contained within the Architectural Plan for Profit and how it can be used to make business decisions about continuing to operate a business or to start a new business. This textbook is an invaluable source of clear and accessible information on forestry economics and management not only for economics students but also for students of other disciplines and those already working in forestry and natural resources.

Economic Growth and the Middle Class in an Economy in Transition Zoya Nissanov, 2017-01-24. This book studies the evolution of the middle class in Russia after the fall of the Soviet Union. Using data from the RLMS Russian Longitudinal Monitoring Survey, the volume covers the period of transition 1991-2008 during which many fundamental economic reforms were implemented. The first part of the book is devoted to a discussion of the concept of middle class and a description of the economic situation in Russia during the transition period. Particular attention is given to variations in the distribution of Russian incomes and the estimated importance of the middle class. The second part of the book focuses on the link between the middle class and income bipolarization. The third and last section of the book uses the semiparametric mixture model to discover how many different groups may be derived from the income distribution in Russia as well as what the main socio-economic and demographic characteristics of those groups are. The mobility of households into and out of the middle class during the transition period is also studied in hopes of determining the factors that contribute to such mobility. Using rigorous empirical methods, this volume sheds light on a relatively unstudied economic group and provides insight for countries which are about to enter a transition period. As such, this book will be of great interest to researchers in economics and inequality as well as professionals and practitioners working with international organizations.

Economics without Borders Laszlo Matyas, Richard Blundell, Estelle Cantillon, Barbara Chizzolini, Marc Ivaldi, Wolfgang Leininger, Ramon Marimon, Frode Steen, 2017-04-27. If treated as a single economy, the European Union is the largest in the world with an estimated GDP of over 14 trillion euros. Despite its size, European economic policy has often lagged behind the rest of the world in its ability to generate growth and innovation. Much of the European economic research itself often trails behind that of the USA, which sets much of the agenda in mainstream economics. This book, also available as open access, bridges the gap between economic research and policymaking by presenting overviews of twelve key areas for future economic policy and research Written for the economists and policymakers working within European institutions it uses comprehensive surveys by Europe's leading scholars in economics and European policy to demonstrate how economic research can contribute to good policy decisions and vice versa demonstrating how economics research can be motivated and made relevant by hot policy questions This title is available as Open Access on Cambridge Core

How We Teach Science John L. Rudolph, 2019-06-01 Despite an enduring belief that science should be taught there has been no enduring consensus about how or why This is especially true when it comes to teaching scientific process John Rudolph shows that how we think about and teach science will either sustain or thwart future innovation and determine how science is perceived by the public

Scripting the Moves Joanne W. Golann, 2021-06-08 An inside look at a no excuses charter school that reveals this educational model's strengths and weaknesses and how its approach shapes students Silent single file lines Detention for putting a head on a desk Rules for how to dress how to applaud how to complete homework Walk into some of the most acclaimed urban schools today and you will find similar recipes of behavior designed to support student achievement But what do these scripts accomplish Immersing readers inside a no excuses charter school Scripting the Moves offers a telling window into an expanding model of urban education reform Through interviews with students teachers administrators and parents and analysis of documents and data Joanne Golann reveals that such schools actually dictate too rigid a level of social control for both teachers and their predominantly low income Black and Latino students Despite good intentions scripts constrain the development of important interactional skills and reproduce some of the very inequities they mean to disrupt Golann presents a fascinating sometimes painful account of how no excuses schools use scripts to regulate students and teachers She shows why scripts were adopted what purposes they serve and where they fall short What emerges is a complicated story of the benefits of scripts but also their limitations in cultivating the tools students need to navigate college and other complex social institutions tools such as flexibility initiative and ease with adults Contrasting scripts with tools Golann raises essential questions about what constitutes cultural capital and how this capital might be effectively taught Illuminating and accessible Scripting the Moves delves into the troubling realities behind current education reform and reenvisioning what it takes to prepare students for long term success

Pushout Monique Couvson, 2018-01-16 The powerful Michelle Alexander exploration of the harsh and harmful experiences confronting Black girls in schools and how we can instead orient schools toward their flourishing On the day fifteen year old Diamond from the Bay Area stopped going to school she was expelled for lashing out at peers who constantly harassed and teased her for something everyone on the staff had missed she was being trafficked for sex After months on the run she was arrested and sent to a detention center for violating a court order to attend school In a work that Lisa Delpit calls imperative reading Monique W Morris chronicles the experiences of Black girls across the country whose complex lives are misunderstood highly judged by teachers administrators and the justice system and degraded by the very institutions charged with helping them flourish Painting a chilling picture of the plight of black girls and women today The Atlantic Morris exposes a world of confined potential and supports the rising movement to challenge the policies practices and cultural illiteracy that push countless students out of school and into unhealthy unstable and often unsafe futures At a moment when Black girls are the fastest growing population in the juvenile justice system Pushout is truly a book for everyone who cares about children Washington Post Book cover photograph by Brittsense brittsense.com

Heavens on Earth Michael Shermer, 2018-01-09 A scientific exploration into humanity's obsession with the afterlife and quest for immortality from the bestselling author and skeptic Michael Shermer In his most ambitious work yet Shermer sets out to discover what drives humans belief in life after death focusing on recent scientific attempts to achieve immortality along with utopian attempts to create heaven on earth For millennia religions have concocted numerous manifestations of heaven and the afterlife and though no one has ever returned from such a place to report what it is really like or that it even exists today science and technology are being used to try to make it happen in our lifetime From radical life extension to cryonic suspension to mind uploading Shermer considers how realistic these attempts are from a proper skeptical perspective Heavens on Earth concludes with an uplifting paean to purpose and progress and how we can live well in the here and now whether or not there is a hereafter ECGBL 2022 16th European Conference on Game-Based Learning Conceição Costa,2022-10-06 Law and Justice around the World Mikaila Mariel Lemonik

Arthur,2020-02-25 Law and Justice around the World is designed to introduce students to comparative law and justice including cross national variations in legal and justice systems as well as global and international justice The book draws students into critical discussions of justice around the world today by taking a broad perspective on law and justice rather than limiting its focus to criminal justice systems examining topics of global concern including governance elections environmental regulations migration and refugee status family law and others focusing on a diverse set of global examples from Europe North America East Asia and especially the global south and comparing the United States law and justice system to these other nations continuing to cover core topics such as crime law enforcement criminal courts and punishment including chapter goals to define learning outcomes sharing case studies to help students apply concepts to real life issues Instructor resources include discussion questions suggested readings films and web resources a test bank and chapter by chapter PowerPoint slides with full color maps and graphics By widening the comparative lens to include nations that are often completely ignored in research and teaching the book paints a more realistic portrait of the different ways in which countries define and pursue justice in a globalized interconnected world Scaling up SDGs Implementation Godwell Nhamo,Gbadebo O. A. Odularu,Vuyo Mjimba,2020-01-14 This volume challenges global leaders and citizenry to do more in order to resource the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development AfSD and its 17 interwoven Sustainable Development Goals SDGs Starting from the concept we cannot manage what we cannot measure the book presents some cases showing how to draw national level baselines for the domestication and localisation of the SDGs seeking to provide a clear roadmap towards achieving the 2030 AfSD Scaling up SDGs Implementation is targeted at the United Nations national and state governments sub national governments the corporate sector and civil society including higher education institutes labour groups non governmental organisations and youth movements The book is cognizant of these institutions common but differentiated responsibilities and capabilities within their socio political environmental and economic conditions The book presents case studies of how the corporate sector has been scaling up SDGs implementation from the tourism sector insurance to the aviation and agricultural sectors To make sure that no one is left behind the volume includes cases on solutions for pressing environmental and socio economic problems ranging from cooperatives in Brazil to the conservation of springs in Zimbabwe The matter of finding synergies between the climate SDG and the Paris Agreement s Nationally Determined Contributions NDCs is elaborated at length Lastly the book discusses how institutions of higher education remain critical pillars in SDGs scaling up with cases of curriculum re orientation in South Africa to the rolling out of the Women s University in Africa In this context this volume challenges every global citizen and organization to invest every effort into making the implementation of the SDGs a success as we welcome the second four to five year segment down the road to the year 2030 United States of America Congressional Record, Proceedings and Debates of the 113th Congress Second Session Volume 160 - Part 2 ,
