Intro: Context + Overview

William Morris was invited to speak to the Trades' Guild Learning. he gave a speech on the relationship between it and modern life. The extract of the speech is designed to persuade and inform the audience the link between art and so society develops the natural world. This audience is a group of men, as indicated by the date and that they are occupations, ~~and~~ that are well educated, as shown by the location. With the small target audience, the speech directly appeals to the group and addresses their concerns.

any features of a speech are present in this extract. 1 of which are used to build a strong connection with the audience and persuade them to his view on the importance of the link. The extract starts with a rhetorical question, "What will we do?", rhetorical questions engage the audience. by introducing a question Morris forces the audience to question a part of society. In his answer, Morris repeats "counting-house, mining-house", this repetition emphasises the point that wisdom has over science. This observation provides a connection between the audience and the speaker as well as

Embracing the Song of Phrase: An Emotional Symphony within English Ib Paper High Level Example

In a world eaten by screens and the ceaseless chatter of instant interaction, the melodic beauty and psychological symphony developed by the written word usually disappear into the backdrop, eclipsed by the persistent sound and disruptions that permeate our lives. But, situated within the pages of English Ib Paper High Level Example a charming fictional prize brimming with organic emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an elegant composer of language, this fascinating masterpiece conducts visitors on a psychological trip, well unraveling the hidden songs and profound impact resonating within each carefully crafted phrase. Within the depths of the moving evaluation, we will examine the book's key harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing fashion, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers' souls.
