Amyra wants to be a fire fighter when she grows up. She loves to help others. When a kitten was stuck on a tree, she was the first one to climb it up and got the kitten down. She told her friends that one day she will drive a fire engine. She will put out fires and save people and pets.

The boys in her class do not think that she can ever be a fire-fighter. They say that she is not strong enough. But Amyra has decided upon her vocation.

She speaks to her father about it and asks him to help her. He tells her to eat a balanced diet, do a lot of exercises and sleep well.
