Violence, Discourse, and Politics in China's Uyghur Region Pablo A. Rodríguez-Merino, 2022-12-30 This book investigates how Uyghur related violent conflict and Uyghur ethnic minority identity religion and the Xinjiang region more broadly became constituted as a terrorism problem for the Chinese state Building on securitization theory Critical Terrorism Studies CTS and the scholarly definitional debate on terrorism it develops the concept of terroristization as a critical analytical framework for the study of historical processes of threat construction Investigating the violent events reported in Xinjiang since the early 1980s the evolving discursive patterns used by the Chinese state to make sense of violent incidents and the crackdown policies that the official terrorism discourse has legitimized the book demonstrates how the securitization and later terroristization of Xinjiang and the Uyghurs is the result of a discursive and political choice of the Chinese state The author reveals the contingent and unstable nature of such construction and how it problematizes the inevitability of the rationale behind China's war on terror that has prescribed a brutal crackdown as the most viable approach to governing the tensions that have historically characterized China's rule over the Turkic Muslim ethnic minorities in Xinjiang This book will be of interest to scholars and students of the politics of contemporary China security and ethnic minority issues International Relations and Security as well as those adopting discursive approaches to the study of security notably those within the critical security and terrorism studies fields

When Courts Do Politics Joseph Oloka-Onyango, 2017-06-23 Using the phenomenon of public interest litigation PIL as the primary focus of analysis this book explores the manner in which the judicial branch of government in the three East African states of Kenya Tanzania and

Uganda has engaged with questions traditionally off limits to adjudication and court based resolution It is rooted in an incisive investigation of the history of politics and governance in the sub region accompanied by an extensive repertoire of judicial decisions It also provides a critical and informative account of the manner in which courts of law have engaged with State power in a bid to alternatively deliver or subvert justice to the socially marginalized and the politically victimized The focus of the book is on judicial struggles over sexual and gender based discrimination social justice and poverty and the adjudication of presidential elections Employing the device of case deconstruction and analysis the study uncovers the conceptual and structural factors which have witnessed public interest litigation emerge as a critical factor in the struggle for more inclusive and equitable structures of governance and social order Needless to say as judges battle with time honoured legal precedents received dogmas and contending and often antagonistic societal forces the struggle in the courts is neither straightforward nor necessarily always transformative

Local Literacies in Early Childhood Helen Victoria Smith, 2021-08-20 This book contributes to current debates about the importance of early literacy and the different ways that literacy resources offer support to parents with young children It sheds light on the impact of policy discourse and austerity measures on community resources designed to support children s early literacy learning Based on an ethnographic study carried out in a small town in the East Midlands UK the book shows how government policy is enacted in four local resources Sure Start children s centres pre schools a public library and privately run parent and child early education classes It reveals how inequalities and contradictions exist in different forms of community literacy provision which can explain some of the educational differences evident when children start school With a particular focus on mothers the book reveals how parents are supported differently depending on where they go and how they are viewed by the professionals they encounter The book contributes to the current literature around literacy in early childhood and combines a unique case study with theoretical concepts to offer a new way of thinking about early intervention parental engagement and school readiness Local Literacies in Early Childhood will be highly relevant reading for researchers academics and post graduate students in the field of early childhood education and literacy education It will also be of interest to policymakers early childhood professionals literacy advisors and librarians from different local national and international contexts wishing to support parents and children more equitably so that learning opportunities can be maximised and educational inequalities tackled
