Jacob and Wilhelm were sent to school for a classical education once they were of age while their father was working. They were very hard working pupils throughout their education. They followed in their father's footsteps and started to pursue a degree in law and German history. However, in 1796 their father died at the age of 44 from pneumonia. This was a tragic time for the Grimms because the family lost all financial support and relied on their aunt Henriette Zimmer and grandfather Johann Hermann Zimmer. At the age of 11 Jacob was compelled to be head of the household and provide for his family. After downsizing their home because of financial reasons, Henriette sent Jacob and Wilhelm to study at the prestigious high school Lyzeum in Kassel. In school their grandfather wrote to them saying that because of their current situation they needed to apply themselves industriously to secure their future welfare.

Grimms' Tales for Young and Old Brothers Grimm, Jacob Grimm, Wilhelm Grimm, 1983-08-09. For readers of all ages two hundred and ten tales of the Brothers Grimm including Cinderella, Sleeping Beauty, Snow White and Hansel and Gretel translated by Ralph Manheim, the highly acclaimed and prize-winning translator. Manheim has rediscovered in the original German Grimms editions of the tales the unadorned direct rhythm of the oral form in which they were first recorded. He has retained their ageless magic and mythology and restored the extraordinary vitality and wit, the acute perceptions of human strength and facility mirrored in the facets of these small gems. The best modern translation of the complete Brothers Grimm Choice.

Grimms' Fairy Tales The Brothers Grimm, 2023. Although Grimm's fairy tales are among the best known works of German literature, the original texts of the fairy tales are unknown to most readers thanks to Disney. Some common misconceptions of Grimm's fairy tales by no means always begin with "Once upon a time." Many commonly known paragraphs have a different version in the original text than is commonly believed. The witch's house in Hansel and Gretel is not made of gingerbread but of bread cake and sugar. Sleeping Beauty stabs herself not on a rose but on a spindle. Cinderella goes to the ball with different dresses but receives them not from a fairy but from a tree on her mother's grave. The Frog Prince turns back into a human not after being kissed but after being thrown against the wall in disgust.
