Skyscraper Jails Zhandarka Kurti, Jarrod B. Shanahan, 2025-03-11 A damning account of the latest transformation in mass incarceration revealing how powerful nonprofits and so called progressives used the language of social movements to build new jails In 2019 after unyielding pressure from activists New York City seemed poised to close the detested Rikers Island penal colony The local press dutifully reported that the end of Rikers was imminent and New Yorkers celebrated the closure of the country's largest urban jail condemned as a moral stain on an otherwise great city The problem however was that the city had not actually committed to closing Rikers And at the same time it laid the groundwork for the construction of more jails a network of skyscraper facilities amounting to the largest carceral construction the city has seen in decades How did this happen In Skyscraper Jails scholars and organizers Jarrod Shanahan and Zhandarka Kurti detail how progressive forces in New York City appropriated the rhetoric of social movements and social justice to promise downsized and humane jails The principal advocates of these new jails were not right wing politicians but prominent city activists and progressive non profit organizations As the political coalition that campaigned for the new jails fans out across the United States the story at the heart of Skyscraper Jails is at once a case study and a cautionary tale for what will be coming to cities and towns across the United States and beyond

Territorial Division for Public Action Antoine Laporte, Antonine Ribardi re, 2025-04-29 The reader may be amazed when they are faced with the sheer number of territorial divisions associated with public action and full of questions What justifies this diversity What are the problems that arise from these divisions Why don't the limits of public action simply follow administrative and political subdivisions Territorial Division for Public Action focuses on the situation in France proposing three different approaches First we consider the functions that are associated with these territorial divisions equitable distribution of resources across the territory administration and the management of public services However they are also a tool for maintaining power Lastly we consider the effects these divisions have on the implementation of public action and on socio spatial structures These divisions reflect political projects which embody the issues as much as the partition design itself does The recent reform of territorial regions alongside a gradual imposition of intercommunal links in France has given rise to political debates at both local and national levels

Datapolis Paul Cournet, Negar Sanaan Bensi, 2024-02-05 DATAPOLIS looks into the materiality of data its inherent ethical and political contradictions as well as cultural and environmental footprints by following two main trajectories the first one attempts to define what the cloud is and how it operates From the systems and infrastructures behind the Internet to the apparatus gizmos and buildings that can transcend scales and temporal dimensions The second one explores how data penetrates our existence not only by affecting the ways we live and work or design and make cities but by offering distinct ways of life and organization that otherwise would not have been possible Through various visual and textual materials this book speculates on the ways in which architecture can engage with data and digital technology beyond its mere instrumental use in making smart cities DATAPOLIS is edited by Paul Cournet and Negar Sanaan Bensi With contributions by Kees Kaan Kate Crawford Shannon Mattern Ruha Benjamin Marina Otero Verzier and Joost Grootens
