Synnott's unique window on the ethos of climbing his friend Alex Honnold's astonishing free solo ascent of El Capitan's 3 000 feet of sheer granite is the central act. When Honnold topped out at 9 28 A M on June 3 2017 having spent fewer than four hours on his historic ascent the world gave a collective gasp. The New York Times described it as one of the great athletic feats of any kind ever. Synnott's personal history of his own obsession with climbing since he was a teenager through professional climbing triumphs and defeats and the dilemmas they render makes this a deeply reported enchanting revelation about living life to the fullest. What are we doing if not an impossible climb. Synnott delves into a raggedy culture that emerged decades earlier during Yosemite's Golden Age when pioneering climbers like Royal Robbins and Warren Harding invented the sport that Honnold would turn on its ear. Painting an authentic wry portrait of climbing history and profiling Yosemite heroes and the harlequin tribes of climbers known as the Stonemasters and the Stone Monkeys Synnott weaves in his own experiences with poignant insight and wit. Tensions burst on the mile high northwest face of Pakistan's Great Trango Tower fellow climber Jimmy Chin miraculously persuades an official in the Borneo jungle to allow Honnold's first foreign expedition led by Synnott to continue. Armed bandits accost the same trio at the foot of a tower in the Chad desert. The Impossible Climb is an emotional drama driven by people exploring the limits of human potential and seeking a perfect choreographed dance with nature. Honnold dared far beyond the ordinary beyond any climber in history. But this story of sublime heights is really about all of us. Who doesn't need to face down fear and make the most of the time we have.

This book celebrates that effort. Jaffe is an acute observer of the painful conditions under which we are forced to live on a daily basis. And like any harbinger of ill he is sometimes mistaken for its creator. But he is not. He is clearing out space that has been polluted for too long His acts of literary terrorism are acts that reclaim literature and art fiction from its cooption by fast food wielding advocates of disposability what has been disposed by the dominant political culture has too often been literary artists Those who have benefited have seldom been literary artists Jaffe has worked brilliantly to save literature from its unwitting complicity in the elimination of readers who dare question authority The writing in this volume whether by Jaffe his former students and colleagues or works inspired by his lead helps blast us out of our complacency and reclaim space we should never have relinquished Innovation and renovation are inextricably linked
