Gregorian Hijri Calendar For 2015

Edward Burton

Gregorian Hijri Calendar For 2015:

Coconut Robin Laurance,2019-07-01 Coconuts have been around for longer than Homo sapiens they have been turned into art taken part in religious rituals and been a sign of wealth and success They have saved lives not only by providing nourishment but also as part of the charcoal filters in First World War gas masks It was coconuts that triggered the mutiny on the Bounty and coconuts that saved the life of the man who went on to become the 35th President of the United States The coconut has long been the unseen player in the endeavours of industrialists and bomb makers physicians and silversmiths smugglers and snake charmers To this day coconuts shape the lives of people around the world At a time when coconut products crowd the shelves of supermarkets health food shops and beauty salons Robin Laurance looks beyond the oils and health drinks to uncover the unexpected often surprising and vital roles played by the coconut palm and its nut in times past and present

Schulthies, 2020-12-01 Honorable Mention 2022 L Carl Brown AIMS Book Prize in North African Studies What does it mean to connect as a people through mass media This book approaches that question by exploring how Moroccans engage communicative failure as they seek to shape social and political relations in urban Fez Over the last decade laments of language and media failure in Fez have focused not just on social relations that used to be and have been lost but also on what ought to be and had yet to be realized Such laments have transpired in a range of communication channels from objects such as devotional prayer beads and remote controls to interactional forms such as storytelling dress styles and orthography to media platforms like television news religious stations or WhatsApp group chats Channeling Moroccanness examines these laments as ways of speaking that created Moroccaness the feeling of participating in the ongoing formations of Moroccan relationality Rather than furthering the discourse about Morocco s conflict between liberal secularists and religious conservatives this ethnography shows the subtle range of ideologies and practices evoked in Fassi homes to calibrate Moroccan sociality and political consciousness

The Weekly Khutbah Volume 3: 2015-2016 Saiyan Islam,2017-12-30 Every week Friday comes and for us Muslims Friday is very crucial in the sense we have our Jummah prayers Along with the Jummah prayers we have our weekly sermons What happens is that most of us tend to forget the sermons delivered by the Imams So I thought of this system of writing down all the sermons so that the knowledge we gain gets preserved Furthermore the sisters who are mostly unable to attend the Jummah prayer in many countries do not get the chance to learn from the weekly sermons The males can easily record their learning and teach the women at their home All the sermons are from the Imams from the Masjids I attend weekly and the Hadiths mentioned are from their own sermons Sometimes the Imams may tend to refer to weak Hadiths I have tried my best to classify them as much as possible May Allah have mercy upon us all and may we get guided to the Straight Path Ameen

Edmund Roberts of New Hampshire Toby Finnegan,2025-02-04 Edmund Roberts 1784 1836 of Portsmouth New Hampshire negotiated America s first treaties with Asian powers He secretly took part in the slave trade between Africa and Argentina traded illegally with the British during the War of 1812 and brought ruin to his family with foolish investments President Andrew Jackson appointed him in 1832 to negotiate commercial treaties with Vietnam Siam and Oman Though failing in Vietnam Roberts succeeded at Siam and Oman The British linguist John Robert Morrison master of the Chinese language proved critical to Roberts s success at Siam Roberts almost sabotaged his treaty with the Sultan of Oman when he illegally demanded restitution for previous business losses at Zanzibar During his second mission 1835 1836 Roberts exchanged ratifications with Oman and Siam but died in Macao in June 1836 This biography focusing on American commercial and diplomatic history will be of significant worldwide interest to historians scholars and general readers

Islamic Heritage Architecture and Art II G Passerini, 2018-07-18 Papers presented at the 2nd International Conference on Islamic Heritage Architecture and Art are contained in this volume The conference attracted important research highlighting the significance of Islamic heritage architecture and art to the world and its influence across different regions The papers deal with the design of many types of buildings in Islamic countries including not only the better known public buildings like mosques mausolea citadels and forts but also houses and gardens engineering works such as bridges and dams irrigation systems and many others which have also had a profound impact on society Traditional architecture and urban environment in most Islamic countries is now being eroded by overemphasis on a global type of architecture and city planning As a consequence many regions are losing their identity The included studies review these developments in the light of what classical Islamic urban design and architecture has to offer modern society Research contained in this book provides an analysis of the materials employed and the types of structural elements used particularly those unique to Islamic architecture Associated topics covered include music textiles and ceramics which are essential parts of the architectural fabric Also looked at are construction materials including not only stone and brick but also more perishable materials like adobe wood and reeds The preservation of heritage features also requires the development of appropriate conservation techniques in response to the different materials used and the ways structural forms work including under extreme conditions such as earthquakes Academics researchers practitioners and government employees actively involved in the topic of Islamic heritage architecture and art will find this publication of interest

Islamic Intellectual History in the Seventeenth Century Khaled El-Rouayheb, 2015-07-08 For much of the twentieth century the intellectual life of the Ottoman and Arabic Islamic world in the seventeenth century was ignored or mischaracterized by historians Ottomanists typically saw the seventeenth century as marking the end of Ottoman cultural florescence while modern Arab nationalist historians tended to see it as yet another century of intellectual darkness under Ottoman rule This book is the first sustained effort at investigating some of the intellectual currents among Ottoman and North African scholars of the early modern period Examining the intellectual production of the ranks of learned ulema scholars through close readings of various treatises commentaries and marginalia Khaled El Rouayheb argues for a more textured and text centered understanding of the vibrant exchange of ideas and transmission of knowledge across a vast expanse of Ottoman controlled territory

Tellings and Texts

Francesca Orsini, Katherine Butler Schofield, 2015-10-05 Examining materials from early modern and contemporary North India and Pakistan Tellings and Texts brings together seventeen first rate papers on the relations between written and oral texts their performance and the musical traditions these performances have entailed The contributions from some of the best scholars in the field cover a wide range of literary genres and social and cultural contexts across the region The texts and practices are contextualized in relation to the broader social and political background in which they emerged showing how religious affiliations caste dynamics and political concerns played a role in shaping social identities as well as aesthetic sensibilities By doing so this book sheds light into theoretical issues of more general significance such as textual versus oral norms the features of oral performance and improvisation the role of the text in performance the aesthetics and social dimension of performance the significance of space in performance history and important considerations on repertoires of story telling The book also contains links to audio files of some of the works discussed in the text Tellings and Texts is essential reading for anyone with an interest in South Asian culture and more generally in the theory and practice of oral literature performance and story telling

The Media World of ISIS Michael Krona, Rosemary Pennington, 2019-11-01 This anthology explores how ISIS used media and propaganda shedding light on the characteristics mission and tactics of its messaging From efficient instructions on how to kill civilians to horrifying videos of beheadings no terrorist organization has more comprehensively weaponized social media than ISIS Its strategic multiplatformed campaign is so effective that it has ensured global news coverage and inspired hundreds of young people around the world to abandon their lives and their countries to join a foreign war Contributors consider how ISIS's media strategies imitate activist tactics legitimize its self-declared caliphate and exploit narratives of suffering and imprisonment as propaganda to inspire followers Using a variety of methods contributors explore the appeal of ISIS to Westerners the worldview made apparent in its doctrine and suggestions for counteracting the organization's approaches Its highly developed targeted and effective media campaign has helped make ISIS one of the most recognized terrorism networks in the world Gaining a comprehensive understanding of its strategies will help combat the new realities of terrorism in the twenty-first century

Healthcare Reform, Quality and Safety Professor Jeffrey Braithwaite, Professor Yukihiro Matsuyama, Professor Russell Mannion, Prof Dr Julie Johnson, 2015-03-28 The first of its kind here is a compendium of the current state of the art in global healthcare reform It looks at the ways reforms have developed in 30 countries and specifically the impact national reform initiatives have had on the quality and safety of care It explores how reforms drive quality and safety improvement and equally how they act to negate such goals This is a unique opportunity for the cross-fertilization of ideas on an international scale

Eighteenth-Century Conservatism in Christianity and Islam Ralph A. Leo, 2024-06-28 This book examines the world of religious conservatism in Christianity and Islam through a comparison of two eighteenth-century traditionalist icons Jonathan Edwards and Muhammad Ibn Abd al-Wahhab Spanning the globe from America to Arabia this book explores the major themes in the lives and works of these most unlikely of bedfellows the Reverend and the Shaykh In many ways Edwards and Ibn Abd al-Wahhab are about as far apart as two figures could possibly be Without minimizing their very real differences however this comparative study finds numerous parallels that beckon even the most conservative of Christians and Muslims to take a second look at their own faith as well as the faith of the other The numerous surprising congruences in the worlds of the Reverend and the Shaykh as well as in their conceptions of God humanity and the faith of the other suggest that we stand much to gain from a reassessment of long-held views that could lead to wholly new patterns of engagement With implications in diverse fields such as politics law philosophy theology history warfare and anthropology this book unearths striking parallels in Edwards and Ibn Abd al-Wahhab that have heretofore gone unnoticed or largely ignored ... and the Sun Will Rise from the West Rafaat Ludin, Windham Loopesko, 2016-06-07 This book seeks to offer an interpretation of how terrorism has become a tool of Muslim radicals and why it is completely at odds with the teaching of Islam It claims that terrorism has nothing to do with Islam as a religion but the evolution of Muslims especially in the past one thousand years has created an environment in which fanaticism radicalism and violence can flourish Supported by double standards by Western powers and active backing for corrupt governments and groups Islamic terrorism came into being It presents an overview of how Islamic thought in many parts of the Muslim world has become rigid and frozen and grounds for hoping that change in that thought may come from a perhaps surprising place It suggests the role that both Muslim and Western societies have played and will continue to play in contributing to reforming Islam Our purpose is not to provide a thorough proof of our ideas but to spark discussion and dialogue both in Muslim and non Muslim communities and ideally between the two as to how Islam can regain in world thought and civilization the honored place it had during the Golden Age of Islam Unlocking SME Finance in Asia

Naoyuki Yoshino,Farhad Taghizadeh-Hesary,2019-07-01 There is limited access for small and medium sized enterprises SMEs to bank credit This book proposes new and sustainable models to help ease the access of SMEs to finance and boost economic growth and job creation in Asia This book looks at the difficulties of SMEs in accessing finance and suggests ways on how to mitigate these challenges It suggests how we can develop credit information infrastructures for SMEs to remedy the asymmetric information problem and to utilize credit rating techniques for the development of a sustainable credit guarantee scheme The book provides illustrations of various Asian economies that implemented credit guarantee schemes and credit risk databases and is a useful reference for lessons and policy recommendations Colloquial Arabic of the Gulf
