Geography Compendium for IAS Prelims General Studies Paper 1 & State PSC Exams 4th Edition Disha Experts, Yojana, 2014 The Shale Dilemma Shanti Gamper-Rabindran, 2017-11-30 The US shale boom and efforts by other countries to exploit their shale resources could reshape energy and environmental landscapes across the world But how might those landscapes change Will countries with significant physical reserves try to exploit them Will they protect or harm local communities and the global climate Will the benefits be shared or retained by powerful interests And how will these decisions be made The Shale Dilemma brings together experts working at the forefront of shale gas issues on four continents to explain how countries reach their decisions on shale development Using a common analytical framework the authors identify both local factors and transnational patterns in the decision making process Eight case studies reveal the trade offs each country makes as it decides whether to pursue delay or block development Those outcomes in turn reflect the nature of a country's political process and the power of interest groups on both sides of the issue The contributors also ask whether the economic arguments made by the shale industry and its government supporters have overshadowed the concerns of local communities for information on the effects of shale operations and for tax policies and regulations to ensure broad based economic development and environmental protection As an informative and even handed account The Shale Dilemma recommends practical steps to help countries reach better more transparent and more far sighted decisions

Altmetrics for Information Professionals Kim Johan Holmberg, 2015-09-03 The goal of any research assessment is to evaluate the value or quality of the research in comparison to other research As quality is highly subjective and difficult to measure citations are used as a proxy Citations are an important part of scholarly communication and a significant component of research evaluation with the assumption being that highly cited work has influenced the work of many other researchers and hence it is more valuable Recently we have seen new online data sources being researched for this purpose and disruptive ideas with the power to change research assessment and perhaps even science as a whole have been born Altmetrics is the new research area that investigates the potential of these new data source as indicators of the impact that research has made on the scientific community and beyond and thus possibly also as indicators of the societal impact of research This book will present some of these new data sources findings from earlier altmetrics research and the disruptive ideas that may radically change scholarly communication Presents some of the key ideas and innovations in earlier research that have been driving the evolution from bibliometrics to webometrics and with the advent of social media to altmetrics Discusses the shortcomings and pitfalls of bibliometrics in research evaluation and the potential of altmetrics to overcome some of these shortcomings Presents some of the most important data sources of altmetrics the aggregators and the different stakeholders Reviews current research about altmetrics and discusses possible future trends Presents a way to measure and aggregate altmetrics according to the level of impact or type of impact they represent General Studies Paper 1 & 2

Ikonomou,Aurélie Andry,Rebekka Byberg,2017-03-16 Enlargement has been an almost constant part of European integration history going from an improvised exercise to the EU s most developed foreign policy tool However neither the longevity nor the complexity of enlargement has been properly historicised European Enlargement across Rounds and Beyond Borders offers three interdisciplinary innovative and indeed radical new ways of understanding and analysing EC EU enlargements first tracing Longue Dur e developments second investigating enlargement Beyond the Road to Membership and third exploring the Entangled Exchanges and synergies between the EC EU and its outside This edited volume will provide fresh perspectives on enlargement as one of the defining processes in Europe in the second half of the 20th century How are we to understand enlargement as a policy How has it changed the EU What is the historical role of the British press in shaping the UK s visions of Europe How has enlargement played into Russia's relationship with today's EU Giving answers to these questions and many more this volume wishes to spark a broad debate about the roots range and repercussions of enlargement and how historians and other scholars should engage with it This publication will be of key interest to scholars and students of modern European history and politics the European integration process EU studies and more broadly multilateral international institutions history law and the social sciences

Digital Peripheries Lorena Melgaço, 2022-08-16 Despite an unprecedented presence of digital technologies in the everyday a clear urban non urban divide in accessing and effectively using the internet remains This divide is identifiable not only in the Global South perceived as peripheral but also in the Global North regarded as advanced and the motor of technological development Such a phenomenon suggests the emergence and endurance of socio technological peripheries places where socio spatial inequalities are reinforced by unjust access to the internet To understand how such peripherality is manifested and challenged in rural settings where the rural and the urban mingle and clash the first part of this book draws from dependency theory and the decolonial thinking to discuss the impacts of uneven production access and use of digital technology The second part draws on Actor Network Theory as a methodological frame to understand the recursive entwinement of the everyday and the use of the internet in three villages two in Brazil and one in the UK By bringing to the fore challenges that cross North South divides Digital Peripheries proposes an open theory of the connected rural as a framework that addresses and accommodates the specificities of these communities in the twenty first century

Blue Infrastructures Jenia Mukherjee, 2020-05-27 This book focuses on Kolkata formerly the colonial capital of and currently a major megacity in India in terms of its extensive blue infrastructures i.e. its rivers canals and wetlands as an integrated composite whole It unfolds ways in which this reclaimed urban space could determine and in turn could get determined by political fate economic calculations and social livelihoods across changing political economic imperatives and with large scale implications on urban sustainability Employing historical urban political ecology HUPE as the methodological framework by combining urban environmental history and urban political ecology the book studies the changing urban environmental equations through several centuries and its impact on the city and its people Weaving the past present and posterity of deltaic Kolkata the book demonstrates that it is in these blue infrastructures that the anecdote of origin the account of functioning and the apprehension of survival of the city is rooted By emphasizing the ecology of cities instead of ecology in cities approach the book exposes the limitations of contemporary ecological restructuring efforts regarding Indian cities Further it offers a blueprint for future innovative and empirical research focusing on other major cities Accordingly this topical and original book will be of interest to students and researchers of environmental humanities political ecology and urban studies

Intergenerational Mobilities Lesley Murray, Susan Robertson, 2016-10-04 Drawing from work on mobilities and geographies of the lifecourse this collection is concerned with the ways in which age as a relational concept is constructed and played out in mobile urban space With studies of ageing and mobility often focusing on discrete age groups most notably children and older people this study seeks to fill a gap in existing literature by exploring mobility in relation to the lifecourse and generation looking not only at the margins Whilst some generations are increasingly mobile others are less so and this disparity in mobility opportunity is relational as age is relational This book addresses gaps in knowledge in relational geographies of ageing whilst contributing to literature on mobility and transport in particular the burgeoning field of mobility in justice Here mobility is considered in its broadest sense for example in relation to the movement or lack of movement of bodies and to computer mediated intergenerational communications Through focusing on urban mobile spaces from very local spaces of medical care to global spaces of migration that are the context for intergenerational mobilities this collection explores these interdependencies and considers ways in which intergenerational mobilities are conceptualised and researched

The Divided City and the Grassroots Giulia Carabelli, 2018-03-14 Focusing on Mostar a city in Bosnia Herzegovina that became the epitome of ethnic divisions during the Yugoslav wars this cutting edge book considers processes of violent partitioning in cities Providing an in depth understanding of the social political and mundane dynamics that keep cities polarized it examines the potential that moments of inter ethnic collaboration hold in re imaging these cities as other than divided Against the backdrop of normalised practices of ethnic partitioning the book studies both planned and unplanned moments of disruption it looks at how networks of solidarity come into existence regardless of identity politics as well as the role of organised grassroots groups that attempt to create more inclusive and it critically engages with urban spaces of resistance Challenging the representation of the city as merely a site of ethnic divisions the author also explores the complexities arising from living in a city that validates its citizens solely through ethnicity Elaborating on the relationships between space culture and social change this book is a key read for scholars students and urban practitioners studying ethnically divided cities worldwide

Smart Development in Smart Communities Gilberto Antonelli, Giuseppe Cappiello, 2016-09-13 The concept of smart cities has become one of the most significant new lines of thinking to emerge in the social sciences in recent years both from the research and policy angles To date the focus in smart specialization has been on what regions as a whole can do to bring about innovation but it hasn't necessarily addressed the role cities play within the field This book aims to address that gap drawing together a team of leading contributors to illustrate this process with particular focus on cities Smart Development in Smart Communities discusses the cross fertilization between smart specialization and cities in fostering smart development and its interactions with the macro micro and meso economic framework from both a theoretical and applied perspective Specific topics covered by the book include human capital formation and utilization centralized decentralized industrial policies innovation policies collective learning and the role of public utilities in sustaining smart development processes This book tackles some of the most important questions that must be faced when investigating how structural change and innovation processes are shaping local and global economic development It will be of interest to academics and researchers in the area of Development
