Urban Geography in South Africa Ruth Massey, Ashley Gunter, 2019-08-17 This book embraces South Africa and its place in the Global South providing a succinct theoretical and empirical analysis and discussion of urban issues in the country There have been sporadic calls from the Urban Geography community for the development of an overarching and comprehensive text that explores contemporary processes and practices taking place in urban South Africa and more widely the Global South This is an edited collection of chapters by leading urban theorists and practitioners working on various themes within urban South Africa and serves as a base for scholars and students interested in urban perspectives from countries in the Global South

Making Public in a Privatized World David A. McDonald, 2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past

(Un)Settled Sojourners in Cities Elizabeth Chacko, Marie Price, 2023-02-28 Temporary migration is a human response to uncertain economic ecological political and socio cultural environments This book provides an important contribution to the literature on the rights lived experiences and trajectories of temporary migrants It focuses on the precarity of temporary migrants at different scales in urban settings varying from the household institution and neighbourhood to the city Temporary migrants experience oscillations in precarity that vary with their categorization as skilled professionals with valued skill sets international students or unskilled domestic workers labourers their ambiguous legal status and the locales in which they reside and work Individual chapters use case studies from around the world USA Canada Ireland Turkey Singapore China to show how temporal and scalar precarity intersect and are mediated by national and local policies civil society as well as the personal and social attributes of migrants themselves such as gender race and country of origin Although often overlooked due to their transitory status the chapters demonstrate how temporary migrants are embedded in urban life and resist their categorization as disposable through individual and collective efforts This book will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of Sociology Politics Human Geography Urban Studies and Social and Cultural Anthropology It was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies
