

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Police Crash Reporting Form (AA 500)

Block 1 identifies the investigating officer and agency. Take note of the arrival time and compare to the crash time below; often, the police officer does not arrive for many minutes or even hours after the crash.

Block 2 gives the location, date, and time of the crash, as well as the number of traffic units (vehicles or other road users) involved, number of people, and number of injuries and fatalities.

The remainder of the page describes the location of the crash. If the crash took place at an intersection, the roads are identified as the Principal Road in block 3 and the Intersecting Road in block 4. The investigating officer also fills in nearby landmarks, GPS data, traffic control and lane closure information.

Jodi And Pennsylvania Police Report:

Picture Perfect: The Jodi Arias Story Shanna Hogan, 2013-09-03 In June 2008 in Mesa Arizona the body of 30 year old Travis Alexander was discovered brutally murdered in his home He had been shot in the face slashed across the throat and stabbed in the heart Alexander had been a devout Mormon handsome and hard working beloved by all and his death came as an enormous shock Suspicion pointed to one woman Jodi Arias Travis had met Jodi at a conference 18 months prior and he was instantly taken with the beautiful aspiring photographer Separated by 400 miles they began a long distance relationship It became clear to Travis s friends however that Jodi was a lot more invested in the relationship than he was Travis was seeing multiple women and his relationship with Jodi eventually came to end But rather than move on Jodi moved from her home in Palm Desert California to within just miles of Travis s home where she continued to insert herself into his life

The Ecology of Homicide Eric C. Schneider, 2020-11-13 Like so many big cities in the United States Philadelphia has suffered from a strikingly high murder rate over the past fifty years Such tragic loss of life as Eric C Schneider demonstrates does not occur randomly throughout the city rather murders have been racialized and spatialized concentrated in the low income African American populations living within particular neighborhoods In The Ecology of Homicide Schneider tracks the history of murder in Philadelphia during a critical period from World War II until the early 1980s focusing on the years leading up to and immediately following the 1966 Miranda Supreme Court decision and the shift to easier gun access and the resulting spike in violence that followed Examining the transcripts of nearly two hundred murder trials The Ecology of Homicide presents the voices of victims and perpetrators of crime as well as the enforcers of the law using to an unprecedented degree the words of the people who were actually involved In Schneider s hands their perspectives produce an intimate record of what was happening on the streets of Philadelphia in the decades from 1940 until 1980 describing how race factored into everyday life how corrosive crime was to the larger community how the law intersected with every action of everyone involved and most critically how individuals saw themselves and others Schneider traces the ways in which low income African American neighborhoods became ever more dangerous for those who lived there as the combined effects of concentrated poverty economic disinvestment and misguided policy accumulated to sustain and deepen what he calls an ecology of violence bound in place over time Covering topics including gender urban redevelopment community involvement children and gangs as well as the impact of violence perpetrated by and against police The Ecology of Homicide is a powerful link between urban history and the contemporary city
