Hamzah,Amira Firdaus,2016 This edited volume revisits developments in the field of media education and media studies at a time when society is experiencing a ubiquitous networked digital media environment Rapid advances in media and communication technologies and the accompanying developments in social cultural political and economic realms pose unexpected challenges to the curricula of long established media and communication schools As opposed to rigidly structured nation based mass media systems of the past century the new global media sphere celebrates the breaking down of borders whether spatial cultural or social Today in the second half of the second decade of the 21st century this problem translates into what and how to teach students of media who in all likelihood are more adept media consumers and producers than their teachers In a region where educational institutions and educators don t transform as fast as media technologies do there is a need to problematize and to reflect upon the situation This edited volume examines critical issues related to media studies at local institutions of higher learning and includes a sampling of research charting new directions in local media scholarship Contributions to this edited volume reflect the shared concerns of media educators and researchers in Malaysia and two neighboring countries Indonesia and Thailand Three main themes underscore this volume reflecting their importance to the evolution of media education and to a certain extent research as well Historical development of media education and training Current developments and future trajectories of media education in a globalized digital media environment Analysis of media and society Handbook on Gender and Health Jasmine Gideon,2016-05-27 This Handbook brings together a groundbreaking collection of chapters that uses a gender lens to explore health health care and health policy in both the Global South and North Empirical evidence is drawn from a variety of different settings and points to the many ways in which the gendered dimensions of health have become reworked across the globe This collection includes insightful contributions from 56 leading authorities from Africa the Americas Asia Europe and the Middle East offering a wealth of knowledge theoretical reflection and empirical detail on the essential elements surrounding gender and health

Topics covered include theoretical approaches to understanding gender and health migration sexuality ageing masculinities climate change and sexual and reproductive rights Split into four thematic sections this book strives to develop a clear road map towards achieving gender justice in health The Handbook on Gender and Health will be an important resource for researchers students and instructors of health policy and family and gender studies Contributors include G Alvarez Minte E Ansoleaga Moreno L Artazcoz A E Birn R A Burgess A Coates I Cort s Franch S Del Pino K Devries X D az Berr L Doyal K Elzein V Escib Ag ir B Eveslage C Ewig J Gideon J Gon alves Mart n B Gough H Grundlingh M Gutmann R R Habib M C Inhorn D Johnston D M Kamuya L Knight M Koivusalo R Kumar M Leite J Lyra E MacPherson A M Cardarelli P McDonough B Medrado L M Morgan S F Murray J Namakula L N ez Carrasco S Payne E Richards N Richardson M Richter S Robertson M Robinson J Samuel S Sexton J A Smith S Smith D L Spitzer S N Ssali S Theobald R Tolhurst J Vearey P Vero Sanso S Witter N Younes F Zalwango

Teaching Social Studies to Multilingual Learners in High School Mark Newman, Xiaoning Chen, 2021-11-15 Teaching Social Studies to Multilingual Learners in High School Connecting Inquiry and Visual Literacy to Promote Progressive Learning explores effective strategies for teaching social studies to diverse learners The centerpiece is a visual literacy framework that integrates inquiry primary source analysis and visual literacy to provide a progressive learning sequence to meet the varied needs of learners The visual literacy framework brings together related aspects of progressive sequential learning into a cohesive whole It has an adaptable structure that allows teachers to customize learning activities to meet individual student needs The progressive learning sequence has varied modes of learning that help teachers move students from basic to proficient to advanced levels of support The book is organized into two related parts The first three chapters provide important content and context on social studies multilingual learner education and the visual literacy framework The remaining chapters discuss civics U S history world history geography and economics and social sciences Each chapter defines the subject area briefly traces its development as a high school subject over time and then offers classroom exercises for using the visual literacy framework in these disciplines The exercises are plotted so that differing levels of the visual literacy framework are explored throughout the book

Between Church and State James W. Fraser, 2016-09-15 A fully updated second edition of this essential look at the continuing tensions between religion and American public schools Today the ongoing controversy about the place or lack of place of religion in public schools is a burning issue in the United States Prayer at football games creationism in the classroom the teaching of religion and morals and public funding for private religious schools are just a few of the subjects over which people are skirmishing In Between Church and State historian and pastor James W Fraser shows that these battles have been going on for as long as there have been public schools and argues there has never been any consensus about what the separation of church and state means for American society or about the proper relationship between religion and public education Looking at the difficult question of how private issues of faith can be reconciled with the very public nature of schooling Fraser s classic book paints a complex picture of how a multicultural society struggles to take the deep commitments of people of faith into account including people of many different faiths and no faith In this fully updated second edition Fraser tackles the culture wars adding fresh material on current battles over public funding for private religious schools He also addresses the development of the long simmering evolution creationism debate and explores the tensions surrounding a discussion of religion and the accommodation of an increasingly religiously diverse American student body Between Church and State includes new scholarship on the role of Roger Williams and William Penn in developing early American conceptions of religious liberty It traces the modern expansion of Catholic parochial schools and closely examines the passage of the First Amendment changes in American Indian tribal education the place of religion in Booker T Washington and W E B Du Bois s debates about African American schooling and the rapid growth of Jewish day schools among a community previously known for its deep commitment to secular public education
