simple however the practice is very costly complex and difficult In Schooling Democracy and the Quest for Wisdom Robert V Bullough Jr and John R Rosenberg examine the concept of partnering through various lenses and they address what they think are the major issues that need to be but rarely are discussed by thousands of educators in the U S who are involved and invested in university public school partnerships Ultimately they assert that the conversation around partnering needs re centering most especially on the purposes of public education refreshing and re theorizing The Seduction of Common Sense Kevin K. Kumashiro, 2008-04-12 Examines how the political left and right have framed the debate on education in the United States Shows a new way to look at this hotly contested terrain Offers implications for policy and practice that can draw together a broader coalition on the left to achieve social justice in education Exposes the insidious nature of current educational reforms and offers directions for anti oppressive change From publisher description Restoring Dignity in Public Schools Maria Hantzopoulos, 2016-02-12 For many students in urban public schools the routines of standards based instruction and frequent testing remove the possibilities for sustained inquiry and critical engagement in school and with the larger world Restoring Dignity in Public Schools demonstrates how urban public schools can create thriving authentic centers of learning Drawing from rich narratives of human rights education HRE in action the author shows how school leaders can create an environment in which a culture of dignity respect tolerance and democracy flourishes The book examines the dynamics of HRE in practice defines its constituent elements and explains how these components work in tandem to produce schooling that encourages young people to critically interact with the world around them and imagine different alternatives for the future This timely book provides a viable alternative to the currently favoured strategies of increased testing privatization and disciplinary control Playing for High Stakes Elaine Denholtz, 1986
