caliphate and the nature of sultani authority the problem of succession Mamluk factionalism Egyptian Syrian relations relations with Mongols and Crusaders and the importance not to mention the strategic and complex nature of international trade in the Mamluk realm Not only does this work fill a gap in knowledge of the early Mamluk period complementing the studies we have of Baybars s and al Nasir Muhammad s reigns but it goes further than most in analyzing the institutions of the period and uses hitherto neglected materials to illuminate theoretical and practical questions of Mamluk rule With indices From Slave to Sultan is well written The analysis is dense and packed with scholarship it is one of those books of which specialists will devour the notes with even greater relish than they do the text Graduate students in particular will be grateful for her first chapter in which she introduces describes and evaluates the various sources MESA Bulletin This book will unquestionably stand as the authoritative work on Qalawun for some time to come School of Oriental African Studies Northrup is to be commended for undertaking this important and much needed project with her persistent efforts meticulous and critical reading of the sources sound methodology and diligent presentation The result is a definitive work on the political legacy of one of the most eminent early Mamluk sultans Journal of Near Eastern Studies Franz Steiner 1998

German Cinema - Terror and Trauma Thomas Elsaesser, 2013-10-30 In German Cinema Terror and Trauma Since 1945 Thomas Elsaesser reevaluates the meaning of the Holocaust for postwar German films and culture while offering a reconsideration of trauma theory today Elsaesser argues that Germany s attempts at mastering the past can be seen as both a failure and an achievement making it appropriate to speak of an ongoing guilt management that includes not only Germany but Europe as a whole In a series of case studies which consider the work of Konrad Wolf Alexander Kluge Rainer Werner Fassbinder Herbert Achterbusch and Harun Farocki as well as films made in the new century Elsaesser tracks the different ways the Holocaust is present in German cinema from the 1950s onwards even when it is absent or referenced in oblique and hyperbolic ways Its most emphatically absent presence might turn out to be the compulsive afterlife of the Red Army Faction whose acts of terror in the 1970s were a response to as well as a reminder of Nazism s hold on the national imaginary Since the end of the Cold War and 9 11 the terms of the debate around terror and trauma have shifted also in Germany where generational memory now distributes the roles of historical agency and accountability differently Against the background of universalized victimhood a cinema of commemoration has if anything confirmed the violence that the past continues to exert on the present in the form of missed encounters retroactive incidents unintended slippages and uncanny parallels which Elsaesser reviving the full meaning of Freud s Fehlleistung calls the parapractic performativity of cultural memory

Lustmord Maria Tatar, 1995 In a book that confronts our society s obsession with sexual violence and the image of the violated female corpse in our collective consciousness Harvard culturist Maria Tatar examines images of sexual murder and studies how art and murder have intersected in sexual culture from Weimar Germany to the present 44 photos A German Women's Movement Nancy R. Reagin, 2000-11-09 Nancy Reagin analyzes the rhetoric strategies and programs of more than eighty bourgeois women's associations in Hanover a large provincial capital from the Imperial period to the Nazi seizure of power She examines the social and demographic foundations of the Hanoverian women's movement interweaving local history with developments on the national level Using the German experience as a case study Reagin explores the links between political conservatism and a feminist agenda based on a belief in innate gender differences Reagin's analysis encompasses a wide variety of women's organizations feminist nationalist religious philanthropic political and professional It focuses on the ways in which bourgeois women's class background and political socialization and their support of the idea of spiritual motherhood combined within an antidemocratic climate to produce a conservative maternalist approach to women's issues and other political matters According to Reagin the fact that the women's movement evolved in this way helps to explain why so many middle class women found National Socialism appealing
