Fede,2024-10 A Degraded Caste of Society traces the origins of twenty first century cases of interracial violence to the separate and unequal protection principles of the criminal law of enslavement in the southern United States Andrew T Fede explains how antebellum appellate court opinions and statutes when read in a context that includes newspaper articles and trial court and census records extended this doctrine to the South's free Black people consigning them to what South Carolina justice John Belton O Neall called a degraded caste of society in which they were in no respect on a perfect equality with the white man This written law either criminalized Black insolence or privileged private white interracial violence which became a badge of slavery that continued to influence the law in action contrary to the Constitution's mandate of equal protection of the criminal law The U S Supreme Court enabled this denial of equal justice as did Congress which did not make all private white racially motivated violence a crime until 2009 when it adopted the Matthew Shepard and James Byrd Jr Hate Crimes Prevention Act Fede's analysis supports that law's constitutionality under the Thirteenth Amendment while suggesting why during the Jim Crow era and beyond equal protection of the criminal law was not always realized and why the curse of interracial violence has been a lingering badge of slavery Television Series of the 1990s Vincent Terrace,2018-06-07 In the 1990s the big three networks were being challenged by upstarts FOX and the WB for viewer loyalty Alongside must see stalwarts like Frasier Friends and Seinfeld the new networks introduced pop culture touchstones like Buffy the Vampire Slayer and The X Files Such shows not only made household names of their stars but also thrived in syndication and some even graduated to the big screen In that decade shows such as ER Everybody Loves Raymond and Northern Exposure were vying for awards while programs like Beverly Hills 90210 and Home Improvement drew in millions of viewers each week Even after these shows departed the airwaves they live on in syndication and on DVDs entertaining many generations of viewers In Television Series of the 1990s Essential Facts and Quirky Details Vincent Terrace presents readers with a cornucopia of information about sixty programs from the decade For example did you know that Ally McBeal's favorite brand of ice cream is Ben and Jerry's Or that Hank Hill's shoe size is 12 Or that Carrie Bradshaw's favorite cookie is Double Stuff Oreos These are just a handful of hundreds of fun and intriguing specifics found inside this volume Programs from all of the major networks as well as select syndicated programs and HBO are represented here This is not a book of opinions or essays about specific television programs but a treasure trove of facts associated with each show From Niles Crane's I Q score to George Constanza's high score on Frogger readers will discover a wealth of fascinating information that for the most part cannot be found elsewhere In some cases the factual data detailed herein is the only such documentation that currently exists on bygone shows of the era Television Series of the 1990s is the ideal reference for fans of this decade and anyone looking to stump even the most knowledgeable trivia expert The
