Charles Holland,2024-04-02 Charles Holland challenges us to look beyond the day to day familiarity of buildings to rediscover the pleasure of experiencing architecture Architecture is bound up with our daily lives but for most of us it is experienced as a blur of habit Our reactions towards the buildings that surround us are often culturally generated and we experience them in ways that are immediate but often mundane How to Enjoy Architecture A Guide for Everyone encourages us to move beyond this and instead really look at buildings Renowned architect Charles Holland talks about the buildings and architects that excite and inspire him and the ideas and principles through which we can engage with architecture By breaking buildings down into categories such as materials structure space and use Holland guides us through drastically different styles and building types from the satisfying symmetry of a Queen Anne house to the thrill of a high tech tower or the social ideals that lie behind a housing estate In doing so he demonstrates how looking at experiencing and using architecture can bring joy in itself A book that will enrich any encounter with a building it made me want to look harder and be more curious We are led playfully through the fundamentals of architecture so that we might enjoy the details and the poetry of buildings all the more A walk through the city feels more fun and also more profound after reading this book Grayson Perry artist We so often encounter architecture when it goes wrong or offends us with its looks Holland though is the perfect clear headed tour guide to help us appreciate it with newly sharpened senses and fall in love again even those buildings we think we hate Tom Dyckhoff academic and broadcaster An enlightening and urbane exploration of architecture that resonates beyond conventional chronological histories Catherine Slessor architecture writer and critic Metaphysics as a Guide to

Morals Iris Murdoch,1994-03-01 The decline of religion and ever increasing influence of science pose acute ethical issues for us all Can we reject the literal truth of the Gospels yet still retain a Christian morality Can we defend any moral values against the constant encroachments of technology Indeed are we in danger of losing most of the qualities which make us truly human Here drawing on a novelist s insight into art literature and abnormal psychology Iris Murdoch conducts an ongoing debate with major writers thinkers and theologians from Augustine to Wittgenstein Shakespeare to Sartre Plato to Derrida to provide fresh and compelling answers to these crucial questions The Making of Star Wars (Enhanced Edition) J. W. Rinzler,2013-10-22 This enhanced eBook transforms The Making of Star Wars into an immersive multimedia experience worthy of the original film It features exclusive content pulled from the Lucasfilm archives by author J W Rinzler 26 minutes of rare behind the scenes video 29 minutes of rare audio interviews with the cast and crew New bonus photos and artwork not found in the print edition After the 1973 success of American Graffiti filmmaker George Lucas made the fateful decision to pursue a longtime dream project a space fantasy movie unlike any ever produced Lucas envisioned a swashbuckling SF saga inspired by the Flash Gordon serials classic American westerns the epic cinema of Japanese auteur Akira Kurosawa and mythological heroes Its original title The Star Wars The rest is history and how it was made is a story as entertaining and exciting as the movie that has enthralled millions for more than thirty years a story that has never been told as it was meant to be Until now Using his unprecedented access to the Lucasfilm Archives and its trove of lost interviews photos production notes factoids and anecdotes Star Wars scholar J W Rinzler hurtles readers back in time for a one of a kind behind the scenes look at the nearly decade long quest of George Lucas and his key collaborators to make the little movie that became a phenomenon It s all here the evolution of the now classic story and characters including Annikin Starkiller and a huge green skinned monster with no nose and large gills named Han Solo excerpts from George Lucas s numerous ever morphing script drafts the birth of Industrial Light Magic the special effects company that revolutionized Hollywood filmmaking the studio hopping and budget battles that nearly scuttled the entire project the director s early casting saga which might have led to a film spoken mostly in Japanese including the intensive auditions that won the cast members their roles and made them legends the grueling nearly catastrophic location shoot in Tunisia and the subsequent breakneck dash at Elstree Studios in London the who s who of young film rebels who pitched in to help including Francis Ford Coppola Steven Spielberg and Brian DePalma But perhaps most exciting and rarest of all are the interviews conducted before and during production and immediately after the release of Star Wars in which George Lucas Mark Hamill Harrison Ford Carrie Fisher Sir Alec Guinness Anthony Daniels composer John Williams effects masters Dennis Muren Richard Edlund and John Dykstra Phil Tippett Rick Baker legendary production designer John Barry and a host of others share their fascinating tales from the trenches and candid opinions of the film that would ultimately change their lives No matter how you view the spectrum of this phenomenon The Making of Star Wars stands as a crucial document rich in fascination and revelation of a genuine cinematic and cultural touchstone Video may not play on all readers Please check your user manual for details

Beyond Reality Kenneth J. Varnum, 2019-07-03 The current price of virtual reality headsets may seem out of economic reach for most libraries but the potential of assisted reality tools goes well beyond merely inviting patrons to strap on a pair of goggles Ranging from enhanced training to using third party apps to enrich digital collections there is a kaleidoscope of library uses for augmented virtual or mixed reality In this collection Varnum and his hand picked team of contributors share exciting surprising and inspiring case studies from a mix of institution types spotlighting such topics as collaborative virtual reality for improved library instruction education and learning and teaching 3D modeling using virtual reality virtual reality as collaboration space from gaming to teleconferencing balancing access with security and other privacy issues future possibilities for augmented reality in public libraries and augmented reality for museums and special collection libraries A
