

Dear Parents,

As the school year comes to a close I want to take a moment to say thanks. Thank you for sharing your pride and joy with me. I have done my best to keep your child safe and happy this school year. I have enjoyed all the hugs, smiles, and kind words your child has shared with me. Thank you for supporting all of my efforts. Thank you for getting up early to make sure your child made it to school on time, for taking the time to read and sign all the notes and forms that have come home, and for reading with your child, helping them with their math homework and helping them learn. And last but not least, thank you for loving your child.

Sincerely,
Miss Dewey

Alternative Schools in British Columbia 1960-1975 Harley Rothstein, 2024-08-09 The tumultuous 1960s was an era of the counterculture political activism and resistance to authority. Conventions and values were challenged and new approaches to education captured the imaginations of parents, teachers, and students. Reacting against the one size fits all nature of the traditional public school system, groups of parents and teachers in Canada and the United States established alternative schools or free schools based on the Progressive child centred philosophy of John Dewey and the Romantic ideas of Summerhill founder A S Neill. In Alternative Schools in British Columbia 1960-1975 Harley Rothstein tells the story of ten such schools that arose in the province of British Columbia. Drawing on 350 self conducted interviews, newspaper articles, personal journals, and school records, Dr Rothstein invites readers to experience the early days of alternative schools. He describes the educational philosophy, curriculum, and governance of these institutions and introduces readers to the people who were at the heart of alternative communities. Tracing the evolution, successes, and challenges of each school, he presents the day to day experience and brings to life the ethos of the 1960s era. Historians, educators, and all curious readers will become immersed in this engaging account of a group of educational pioneers on Canada's west coast and how they inspired the liberalization of the public school system that would come in the 1970s. My Teacher Is Gay Peter Van

Maaren, 2011-02-21 How does a teacher, especially a gay teacher, respond to the gradual increase in ethnic minorities in the student body? My Teacher is Gay tells the story of Peter van Maaren, who recounts his experiences at a community college in Amsterdam as the school undergoes significant changes. His upbeat and sometimes disconcerting stories involve not only his interactions with students but also his fellow faculty members and school administration. As it turned out, thanks to his openness and sense of humor, his sexual orientation was not an issue for most of the students and their parents. It was often much more difficult to convince his colleagues and the administrators that a gay teacher does not automatically pose a threat to the school. His goal was to show that cultivating mutual understanding, respect, and tolerance can actually make a positive contribution to the learning atmosphere. By being open and honest about his identity, he achieved far more with his students than he did when the school administration ordered him to keep quiet about his orientation and try to ignore any remarks about it. The Gay Krant editorial staff in Best has received a growing number of complaints about intolerance in education. Students today are afraid to be open about their feelings, and teachers report being forced back in the closet. In response to this alarming trend, we publish interviews in the paper. Many are anonymous because the subjects are so afraid to go public. Consequently, I am thrilled that Peter van Maaren is the first to come forward to share his story. A highly worth reading and at times moving account. Now we can only hope that politicians, policymakers, and other involved parties will learn something from it. Henk Krol, Gay Krant editor in chief. Education is not a matter of filling a vessel. Education is certainly not a budgeting exercise for administrators. Education is about lighting a fire of wisdom and humanity. Let this book by Peter van Maaren
