Survival of the Prettiest Nancy Etcoff, 2011-02-02 A provocative and thoroughly researched inquiry into what we find beautiful and why skewering the myth that the pursuit of beauty is a learned behavior In Survival of the Prettiest Nancy Etcoff a faculty member at Harvard Medical School and a practicing psychologist at Massachusetts General Hospital argues that beauty is neither a cultural construction an invention of the fashion industry nor a backlash against feminism it s in our biology Beauty she explains is an essential and ineradicable part of human nature that is revered and ferociously pursued in nearly every civilization and for good reason Those features to which we are most attracted are often signals of fertility and fecundity When seen in the context of a Darwinian struggle for survival our sometimes extreme attempts to attain beauty both to become beautiful ourselves and to acquire an attractive partner suddenly become much more understandable Moreover if we understand how the desire for beauty is innate then we can begin to work in our own interests and not just the interests of our genetic tendencies
