

Question: Explain the powers of Karta in a joint Hindu Family? Whether he can mortgage the undivided shares of other coparceners in the property.

Answer : INTRODUCTION:- The position of karta in a joint hindu family is unique. He is that person who takes care of the whole family and its property and administers it and all the members of family remained disciplined under him. It has been said regarding the position of karta that no one else is equivalent to him in the family. The position and powers of the karta are more wide than anyone

POWERS OF THE KARTA

1. He has the complete control over the family.
2. No one can claim accounts from him nor can say to him to spend less.
3. There is no binding over him that how much he shall spend over any coparcener.
4. It is within his power to whom he may educate and whom he keeps illiterate.

But this does not mean that he is dictator. His position is extremely sensitive. He has to move along-with all the members. Thus the position of the karta is mixture of rights and duties. He has to maintain the control between rights and duties.

WHO CAN BE A KARTA

1. Hindu Law believes that the seniormost coparcener is the Karta of the family. Refer case of Ram v/s Khara -1971.
2. Any coparcener becomes Karta of family because of his seniority not because of anyone appointed him. Refer a case to this effect Mann V/s
