Marital and Family Therapy Ira D. Glick, Ellen M. Berman, John F. Clarkin, 2003-09-01 Marital and Family Therapy now in its Fourth Edition continues its tradition as a classic resource for psychiatrists and family therapists trainees and practitioners alike by combining psychiatric and integrative family models into a single framework The recent growth and changes in the field especially the movement away from narrowly based schools of therapy toward an integrative approach prompted the authors to expand and rewrite the text The authors have included the results of 20 years of successful field testing by trainees and have supplemented the text with well placed case vignettes and charts The authors have further renewed the appeal of this definitive text by 1 rewriting the discussion of how new attitudes and information about gender culture class and race are affecting family theory building 2 updating their text for compatibility with DSM IV TR and ICD 10 3 adding a section on treating Axis I disorders by combining family therapy with medication 4 adding a section on the new subspecialty of family systems medicine 5 offering the latest on family therapy effectiveness and training and 6 discussing afresh the ethical financial and professional issues facing therapists today With two new authors up to date references for the advanced therapist and suggested readings for both instructor and student this volume will spend little time on the shelf Psychiatrists family therapists social workers nurses family education teachers counselors family physicians and family law professionals will turn to this practical reference time and time again as they seek a better understanding of the evolving field of marital and family therapy

Addictive Disorders in Medical Populations Norman S. Miller, Mark S.
