

A dramatic, high-contrast photograph of a person's face, mostly obscured by deep shadows. The person's hand is pressed against their face, with fingers spread, covering the eyes and nose. The skin on the hand and the visible parts of the face are brightly lit, creating a stark contrast with the surrounding darkness. The person appears to be wearing a dark, textured garment, possibly a jacket or sweater. The overall mood is one of despair, shame, or distress.

Project Sanctuary, 1999-11 Project Sanctuary is a training manual to allow the user to begin understanding and using Quantum Logic and to repair the conscious unconscious divide For most if not all endeavours at the far edge of human knowledge an innate understanding of Quantum Logic is essential This is systemic organic thinking which may involve computations of n complexity and this cannot be achieved with ordinary thinking the hard way Human beings are structurally designed to think in Quantum Logic but have been entrained to a much slower harder and highly limited logic of four dimensional symbols and language thus causing a break between what we now call the conscious and the unconscious mind For anyone involved in learning about people psychology healing mathematics art creativity physics etc it is of the essence to firstly bridge the gap and allow insights derived from the Quantum Logic processes of the unconscious mind to be made available to the conscious mind once more and secondly to re train the conscious mind to be able to compute in Quantum logic also thereby reuniting dream and real This leads even at the beginning stages to a powerful increase in intuition ESP creativity and effectiveness in learning and understanding the complex systems of relationships of people and of their ecology Project Sanctuary achieves this reunification process by a simple and joyful communication within one person s mind in a stepped off reality dimension which gave the training process and the book its name Project Sanctuary the third edition contains both the original training process as well as a reaching addendum of practical and powerful patterns which were derived directly by using the Project Sanctuary process itself in order to generate these      Monitoring food security in food crisis countries with conflict situations Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,World Food Programme,2022-10-06 This report provides an update on the acute food insecurity in countries and territories that have the world s highest burden of people in need of emergency food nutrition and livelihood assistance as a result of protracted conflict combined with other factors This issue focuses on the following countries Afghanistan Burkina Faso Cameroon the Central African Republic Chad the Democratic Republic of the Congo Ethiopia Haiti Iraq Mali Mozambique Myanmar northern Nigeria the Niger Palestine Somalia South Sudan the Sudan the Syrian Arab Republic and Yemen Specific information on Ukraine is also included given the situation currently unfolding The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations FAO and the World Food Programme WFP have jointly produced this report for the members of the United Nations Security Council UNSC since June 2016      Global Climate Change and Environmental Refugees Pardeep Singh,Bendangwapang Ao,Anamika Yadav,2023-02-18 This book explores the possibilities of understanding the concept of climate refugees in order to ascribe to a consensual agreement that climate refugees are evident and this situation is a reality A framework to study both empirically and theoretically is presented in a detailed manner so that it may become a resource for understanding the challenges of climate refugees Through discussion and analysis the book presents potential answers to such questions as Why has the international system been so short sighted and has not given importance to the problems of climate migrants and refugees How to identify a climate refugee How do you justify a climate refugee or a migrant What are internally displaced people Should we call them just refugees The book covers the interdisciplinary nature of climate refugees and the perspectives of social science The empirical findings provides an edge to holistically understanding climate refugees This book discusses the concept of what really is a climate refugee and the necessary factors to make it an important part of the climate discourse The legality of the term is missing in international parlance and the academic discourse should provide the necessary critique required for the evolution of the subject under study Therefore the major objective of the book is to make the subject of climate migration known to all      Learning to Dance on Moving

Carpets Pauline Wren, 2018-12-01 INTRODUCTION Many years ago during my professional training as a therapist a colleague commented to me that in so many cases we need to live life backwards I understood exactly what he meant If only we had the wisdom and the benefits of hindsight and the experience before living through the situation we would suffer much less throughout our lives This little book is going to try to share a few of the tools that I had to learn to manage my life in a very dysfunctional family with two narcissistic parents Unfortunately a child brought up in such a family has no resources and few other models than those of her parents to define herself and to help her to develop She believes that the life that she is experiencing is everyone's life and discovers other models and possibilities only much later Unfortunately the models established early during the first seven years of childhood are even more difficult to change So unless it is a child who acts out in a problematic way in school or in public and who therefore obtains professional help the child has little chance to learn to behave or react in a conscious or different way to what he has lived There are however children like me who do not act out who achieve who comply who succeed well academically and later professionally They suffer nonetheless from this emptiness and unease inside from this eternal angst from a deep confusion Many also have their immune system compromised and they suffer from hidden physical illnesses depression frequent infections unexplained or psychosomatic pain where they have somatised integrated in their physical bodies the emotional and psychological suffering of their childhoods      Sources and

Methods in Indigenous Studies Chris Andersen, Jean M. O'Brien, 2016-12-19 Sources and Methods in Indigenous Studies is a synthesis of changes and innovations in methodologies in Indigenous Studies focusing on sources over a broad chronological and geographical range Written by a group of highly respected Indigenous Studies scholars from across an array of disciplines this collection offers insight into the methodological approaches contributors take to research and how these methods have developed in recent years The book has a two part structure that looks firstly at the theoretical and disciplinary movement of Indigenous Studies within history literature anthropology and the social sciences Chapters in this section reveal that while engaging with other disciplines Indigenous Studies has forged its own intellectual path by borrowing and innovating from other fields In part two the book examines the many different areas with which sources for indigenous history have been engaged including the importance of family gender feminism and sexuality as well as various elements of expressive culture such as material culture literature and museums Together the chapters offer readers an overview of the dynamic state of the field in Indigenous Studies This book shines a spotlight on the ways in which scholarship is transforming Indigenous Studies in methodologically innovative and exciting ways and will be essential reading for students and scholars in the field Misery in the Name of Freedom Al Burke,1988 Nigeria, Bulletin on Foreign Affairs ,1974 Nigeria ,1973 Mobbing Maureen Duffy,Len Sperry,2012-02-03 Mobbing Causes Consequences and Solutions addresses the devastating impact that mobbing has on victims their families and the organizations in which it occurs The book provides a fascinating analysis of how organizations can foster mobbing and what can be done to help mobbing victims and their organizations to heal A Practical Guide to Fostering Law Lynn Davis,2010 A Practical Guide to Fostering Law is an accessible jargon free guide to key areas of law for foster carers and those who work with them How To Create Democratic World Order Satria Novian,2025-04-29 How To Create Democratic World Order is a democracy ebook that contains procedures for creating fair laws law enforcement democracy education meritocracy education and good governance LITERACY DRIVE AND REHABILITATION OF THE STREET CHILDREN OF KOLKATA: AN ANALYTICAL STUDY Dr. Shabana Haydar,2017-06-13 Street Children are the casualties of economic growth war poverty loss of traditional values domestic violence physical and mental abuse Every Street Child has a reason for being on the streets While some children are lured by the promise of excitement and freedom majority are pushed onto the street by desperation and realization that they have nowhere else to go In many countries Street Children are named after their main survival activities What is obvious is that Street Children are poverty stricken and their needs and problems are a result of wanting to meet basic needs for survival They go through the struggle of providing themselves with basic things such as food shelter health and clothing Providing targeted interventions that meet the needs of Street Children requires an understanding of who they are what they need what they do and how they can be identified Shukla P C Street Children and the asphalt life 2005 Sex and Social Justice Martha C. Nussbaum,2000-08-24 What does it mean to respect the dignity of a human being What sort of support do human capacities demand from the world and how should we think about this support when we encounter differences of gender or sexuality How should we think about each other across divisions that a legacy of injustice has created In Sex and Social Justice Martha Nussbaum delves into these questions and emerges with a distinctive conception of feminism that links feminist inquiry closely to the important progress that has been made during the past few decades in articulating theories of both national and global justice Growing out of Nussbaum s years of work with an international development agency connected with the United Nations this collection charts a feminism that is deeply concerned with the urgent needs of women who live in hunger and illiteracy or under unequal legal systems Offering an internationalism informed by development economics and empirical detail many essays take their start from the experiences of women in developing countries Nussbaum argues for a universal account of human capacity and need while emphasizing the essential role of knowledge of local circumstance Further chapters take on the pursuit of social justice in the sexual sphere exploring the issue of equal rights for lesbians and gay men Nussbaum s arguments are shaped by her work on Aristotle and the Stoics and by the modern liberal thinkers Kant and Mill She contends that the liberal tradition of political thought holds rich resources for addressing violations of human dignity on the grounds of sex or sexuality provided the tradition transforms itself by responsiveness to arguments concerning the social shaping of preferences and desires She challenges liberalism to extend its tradition of equal concern to women always keeping both agency and choice as goals With great perception she combines her radical feminist critique of sex relations with an interest in the possibilities of trust sympathy and understanding Sex and Social Justice will interest a wide readership because of the public importance of the topics Nussbaum addresses and the generous insight she shows in dealing with these issues Brought together for this timely collection these essays extensively revised where previously published offer incisive political reflections by one of our most important living philosophers
