Latoya Ruby Frazier - the Notion of Family Lesley A. Martin, 2016 LaToya Ruby Frazier: the Notion of Family LaToya Ruby Frazier, 2016 Now available in a paperback edition LaToya Ruby Frazier's award winning first book The Notion of Family offers an incisive exploration of the legacy of racism and economic decline in America's small towns as embodied by her hometown of Braddock Pennsylvania The work also considers the impact of that decline on the community and on her family creating a statement both personal and truly political an intervention in the histories and narratives of the region Frazier has compellingly set her story of three generations her Grandma Ruby her mother and herself against larger questions of civic belonging and responsibility The work documents her own struggles and interactions with family and the expectations of community and includes the documentation of the demise of Braddock's only hospital reinforcing the idea that the history of a place is frequently written on the body as well as the landscape With The Notion of Family Frazier knowingly acknowledges and expands upon the traditions of classic black and white documentary photography enlisting the participation of her family and her mother in particular In the creation of these collaborative works Frazier reinforces the idea of art and image making as a transformative act a means of resetting traditional power dynamics and narratives both those of her family and of the community at large Latoya Ruby Frazier: The Notion of Family \(Signed Edition\) , 2014-11-30 In this her first book LaToya Ruby Frazier born 1982 offers an incisive exploration of the legacy of racism and economic decline in America's small towns as embodied by Braddock Pennsylvania Frazier's hometown The work also considers the impact of that decline on the community and on her family creating a statement both personal and truly political an intervention in the histories and narratives of the region that are dominated by stories of Andrew Carnegie and Pittsburgh's industrial past but largely ignore those of black families and the working classes Frazier has set her story of three generations her Grandma Ruby her mother and herself against larger questions of civic belonging and responsibility The work also documents the demise of Braddock's only hospital reinforcing the idea that the history of a place is frequently written on the body as well as the landscape With The Notion of Family Frazier knowingly acknowledges and expands upon the traditions of classic black and white documentary photography enlisting the participation of her family and her mother in particular As Frazier says her mother is co author artist photographer and subject Our relationship primarily exists through a process of making images together I see beauty in all her imperfections and abuse Frazier's work reinforces the idea of image making as a transformative act a means of resetting traditional power dynamics and narratives both those of her family and those of the community at large Frazier is a 2014 Guggenheim fellow The Image of Environmental Harm in American Social Documentary Photography Chris Balaschak, 2021-03-03 With an emphasis on photographic works that offer new perspectives on the history of American social documentary this book considers a history of politically engaged photography that may serve as models for the representation of impending environmental injustices Chris Balaschak examines histories of American photography the environmental movement as well as the industrial and postindustrial economic conditions of the United States in the 20th century With particular attention to a material history of photography focused on the display and dissemination of documentary images through print media and exhibitions the work considered places emphasis on the depiction of communities and places harmed by industrialized capitalism The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual studies photography ecocriticism environmental humanities media studies culture studies and visual rhetoric

Reclaiming Time Isaiah Matthew Wooden, 2025-03-15 Showing how twenty first century Black theater and media arts challenge dominant conceptualizations of time Reclaiming Time Race Temporality and Black Expressive Culture examines works by contemporary Black artists in multiple media drama film performance art and photography that trouble dominant conceptualizations and normative configurations of time in relation to race in the twenty first century Isaiah Matthew Wooden explores the ways in which an intentional and sometimes ludic engagement with time and temporality has enabled these artists to probe urgent questions and themes concerning the conditions of contemporary Black life Wooden surveys a diverse array of performance based and visual texts to explore the rich practices of contemporary Black expressive culture dramatic works by playwrights Eisa Davis Tarell Alvin McCraney and Robert O Hara performance art and photography by visual artists Jefferson Pinder and LaToya Ruby Frazier and feature length cinema by director producer Tanya Hamilton These works expose normative time as specious and evidence the transformative potential in honing practices of Black temporal experimentation and intervention By putting this cross disciplinary set of texts in conversation with each other Wooden sheds new light on the shrewd ways that they each reflect an investment in unbinding time from the exigencies of normativity and teleology as well as on their shared commitments to reclaiming time to reimagine and represent Blackness in all its multiplicities

Depth Effects Brooke Belisle, 2024-01-09 In this bold rewriting of visual culture Brooke Belisle uses dimensionality to rethink the history and theory of media aesthetics With Depth Effects she traces AI enabled techniques of computational imaging back to spatial strategies of early photography analyzing everyday smartphone apps by way of almost forgotten media forms Drawing on the work of Maurice Merleau Ponty Belisle explores depth both as a problem of visual representation how can flat images depict a voluminous world and as a philosophical paradox how do things cohere beyond the limits of our view She explains how today's depth effects continue colonialist ambitions toward totalizing ways of seeing But she also shows how artists stage dimensionality to articulate what remains invisible and irreducible

Scholars and Their Kin Stéphane Gerson, 2025-02-19 Spotlights historians who have embraced the methodological practical and ethical challenges of writing about the most slippery of subjects their own families Historians have often been discouraged from writing about their relatives subjects who are deemed too close for objective analysis But new work by scholars interested in their own families raises fascinating questions about subjectivity and how historians might put it to use It also invites historians to abandon traditional aspects of academic writing and draw instead on literary forms more equipped to highlight the relationships between scholar and material feeling and reason Scholars and Their Kin embraces diverse approaches to such writing bringing into the open the personal professional and historiographic complexities that ensue when scholars write intimate yet self aware histories about their families The first book devoted to this genre which editor Stéphane Gerson terms personal family history this anthology features ten essays and an afterword by scholars working in this vein The contributors varied in their disciplines themes and nationalities reflect on their motivations and methodological choices the politics of family history and the institutional constraints they have sometimes faced Making full use of the creative possibilities of voice and form they expand the literary ambitions of personal family history provide readers with narrative models and address questions of shame responsibility love gendered and racial violence family archives as well as the tall tales myths misrepresentations memories and omissions that suffuse family lives Scholars and Their Kin will interest historians scholars in other disciplines and readers interested in family histories that open broader worlds

The Photograph as Contemporary Art Charlotte Cotton, 2021-02-16 A new edition of the definitive title in the field of contemporary art photography by one of the world's leading experts on the subject Charlotte Cotton In the twenty first century photography has come of age as a contemporary art form Almost two centuries after photographic technology was first invented the art world has fully embraced it as a legitimate medium equal in status to painting and sculpture The Photograph as Contemporary Art introduces the extraordinary range of contemporary art photography from portraits of intimate life to highly staged directorial spectacles Arranged thematically the book reproduces work from a vast span of photographers including Andreas Gursky Barbara Kasten Catherine Opie Cindy Sherman Deana Lawson Diana Markosian Elle Pérez Gregory Halpern Lieke Shiga Nan Goldin Paul Mpagi Sepuya Pixy Liao Susan Meiselas and Zanele Muholi This fully revised and updated new edition revitalizes previous discussion of works from the 2000s through dialogue with more recent practice Alongside previously featured work Charlotte Cotton celebrates a new generation of artists who are shaping photography as a culturally significant medium for our current sociopolitical climate A superb resource The Photograph as Contemporary Art is a uniquely broad and diverse reflection of the field

Capitalism and the Camera Kevin Coleman, Daniel James, 2021-05-11 A provocative exploration of photography's relationship to capitalism from leading theorists of visual culture Photography was invented between the publication of Adam Smith's The Wealth of Nations and Karl Marx and Frederick Engels's The Communist Manifesto Taking the intertwined development of capitalism and the camera as their starting point the essays in Capitalism and the Camera investigate the relationship between capitalist accumulation and the photographic image and ask whether photography might allow us to refuse capitalism's violence and if so how Drawn together in productive disagreement the essays in this collection explore the relationship of photography to resource extraction and capital accumulation from 1492 to the postcolonial the camera's potential to make visible critical understandings of capitalist production and society especially economies of class and desire and propose ways that the camera and the image can be used to build cultural and political counterpublics from which a democratic struggle against capitalism might emerge With essays by Ariella A sha Azoulay Siobhan Angus Kajri Jain Walter Benn Michaels T J Clark John Paul Ricco Blake Stimson Chris Stolarski Tong Lam and Jacob Emery Arc of Interference João Biehl,Vincanne Adams,2023-02-27 The radically humanistic essays in Arc of Interference refigure our sense of the real the ethical and the political in the face of mounting social and planetary upheavals Creatively assembled around Arthur Kleinman s medical anthropological arc and eschewing hegemonic modes of intervention the essays advance the notion of a care ful ethnographic praxis of interference To interfere is to dislodge ideals of naturalness blast enduring binaries human nonhuman self other us them and redirect technocratic agendas while summoning relational knowledge and the will to create community The book s multiple ethnographic arcs of interference provide a vital conceptual toolkit for today s world and a badly needed moral perch from which to peer toward just horizons Contributors Vincanne Adams Jo o Biehl Dav d Carrasco Lawrence Cohen Jean Comaroff Robert Desjarlais Paul Farmer Marcia Inhorn Janis H Jenkins David S Jones Salmaan Keshavjee Arthur Kleinman Margaret Lock Adriana Petryna
