There's an isle on the verge of the ocean;
 There's a land where the shamrock grows green;
 There is Mary with snowy white bosom,
 She's the fairest I ever have seen!
 There's a stream that steals lone through the mountain,
 Where my spirit's oft wandering you know,
 Inhaling pure draughts from that fountain,
 And that crystalline stream is the Roe!

Then away with this sighing and crying;
 Such is life, and such follow thy parting;
 Though in far distant lands I am dying,
 Yet in dream I oft creep back again,
 There's a chair for the wand'rer at evening;
 There's a bed where the weary repose;
 For a friend there's a "Cead mille faille,"
 And "Na baclish" for sorrows and woe.

There's a spirit to soothe you in trouble,
 And a hand to protect you from wrong;
 There's a heart with whom joys you may double,
 And at night there's a cheery old song;
 Then how can I leave you, old Erin,
 Sure my soul's in each mountain and rill!
 Shall I never see white-bosom'd Mary?
 Never list to her strains on the hill?

Round the green pole on May's hallowed morning,
 How we've bounded with spirits of glee,
 When nature the wilds was adorning,
 With the blackbird, the skylark and bee.
 When I whispered the first tender breathing,
 Dear Mary, how bright thy blue eye:
 Can I call back the scene without grieving,
 Or mention that name and not sigh.

Then farewell to those bright sunny valleys;
 Dear Erin, I'll see you no more!
 My heart whisper'd something of sorrow,
 When I took my last look at your shore.
 There's a spirit at night breathes around me,
 And whispers of friends far away;
 There's a spell that has oftentimes bound me
 In the darkness as well as the day.

There's a soft sigh that's often heav'd near me,
 In a music that saddens the soul;
 There's a shadow of light seems to cheer me,
 And to silence my woes to control;
 Then farewell to the green banks of Erin,
 To her mountains all shrouded in snow:
 Farewell to you soft bosom'd Mary,
 And adieu to the banks of the Roe.

S.H.

Verse 2—Na baclish means "dry up your tears."
