How to Teach Sewing Machine Use and Care United States. Federal Extension Service,1966 City Document ... Worcester (Mass.),1912 Singer Student's Manual of Machine Sewing ,1954 The Unforeseen Mary Blewett,2018-01-08 Set in New England The Unforeseen follows the consequences of the brutal Civil War to the lives of ordinary women through three generations of intermarried families No one among the antislavery advocates in New England foresaw the sweeping changes that the long brutal Civil War would bring to their towns and families In Beverly Massachusetts the magnitude of the war tears family life apart forcing many to endure the absence and deaths of fathers fiancs brothers uncles cousins and nephews Unmarried women are forced to find work in factories or as servants and farm helpor else face miserable poverty Jenny Proctor Hutchins nineteen when the war breaks out in 1861 withstands catastrophic losses She must adapt to the strangeness of a new city and of large scale production to boardinghouse living and to learning new skills on steam driven sewing machines Friends and family come to rely on Jennys resourcefulness as an herbal healer and after a hard struggle she forges a satisfying new life for herself Still Jenny realizes that postwar society in the Northeast is deeply corrupt Victory has poisoned the financial system just as defeat made the South wretched With declining northern support for the freed people Jenny wonders why the war was fought with these results The Chronicle ,1869 Gendered Capitalism Paula De La Cruz-Fernández,2021-05-05 Gendered Capitalism Sewing Machines and Multinational Business in Spain and Mexico 1850 1940 is a history of the gendered corporation a study that examines how ideas and ideals about domesticity and the cultures of sewing and embroidery being gender specific shaped the US headquartered Singer Sewing Machine Company s operations around the world In contrast to production driven and culture neutral analyses of the multinational enterprise this book focuses on both the supply and the demand side to argue that consumers and the cultural worlds of those mainly women using the sewing machine for personal purposes or for the market shaped corporate organization This book is a global history of Singer but it also focuses on the cases of Spain and Mexico to highlight nations where the sewing machine multinational never established manufacturing operations Casa Singer was a mostly profitable and a long term selling and marketing operation in both countries Gendered Capitalism demonstrates that local Spanish and Mexican agents both men and women developed and expanded Singer s selling system to the extent that the multinational company was seen as domestic both in the location sense and because of its focus on the private sphere of the home By bringing the cases of Spain and Mexico and the cultural everyday realm of practices related to sewing and embroidery that the sewing machine was part of to the center of the study of international business Gendered Capitalism further reveals the layers of complexities and multitudes that conform the history of global capitalism This book will be of interest to readers and scholars in the fields of business history economic cultural history management studies international business women s history gender studies and the history of technology Rural Californian ,1909 The Journal of the National Education Association National Education Association of the United States,1923 LIFE ,1952-02-25 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today s people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use Classical Econophysics Allin F. Cottrell,Paul Cockshott,Gregory John Michaelson,Ian P. Wright,Victor Yakovenko,2009-06-02 This monograph examines the domain of classical political economy using the methodologies developed in recent years both by the new discipline of econophysics and by computing science This approach is used to re examine the classical subdivisions of political economy production exchange distribution and finance The book begins by examining the most basic feature of economic life production and asks what it is about physical laws that allows production to take place How is it that human labour is able to modify the world It looks at the role that information has played in the process of mass production and the extent to which human labour still remains a key resource The Ricardian labour theory of value is re examined in the light of econophysics presenting agent based models in which the Ricardian theory of value appears as an emergent property The authors present models giving rise to the class distribution of income and the long term evolution of profit rates in market economies Money is analysed using tools drawn both from computer science and the recent Chartalist school of financial theory Covering a combination of techniques drawn from three areas classical political economy theoretical computer science and econophysics to produce models that deepen our understanding of economic reality this new title will be of interest to higher level doctoral and research students as well as scientists working in the field of econophysics Blood on Their Hands Fred Couzens,2014-02
