Soldier and Peasant in French Popular Culture, 1766-1870 David M. Hopkin, 2003 Concentrating on the militarised borderlands of eastern France this book examines the disjuncture between the patriotic expectations of elites and the sentiments expressed in folksongs folktales and popular imagery in which issues of sexuality violence and separation took far greater prominence Hopkin follows the soldier through his life cycle from greenhorn recruit to grizzled veteran to show how the peasant conscript was separated from his previous life and re educated in military mores and the response that this transformation elicited from his family and community BOOK JACKET Histoire Poétique de Charlemagne Gaston Bruno Paulin Paris, 1905 numerous critics regard them as inferior copies of a superior textual original But key novels by Zola resist this critical approach to adaptation Both at the level of characterization and in terms of their own textual inheritance they question the very possibility of origin be it personal or textual In the light of this questioning the cinematic versions created from Zola's texts merit critical re evaluation Far from being facile copies of the nineteenth century novelist's works these films assess their own status as adaptations playing with both notions of artistic creation and their own artistic act
