Marie-Thérèse d'Alverny, Charles Burnett, 2024-10-28 This volume the second in the series of Marie Thérèse d'Alverny's selected articles to be published by Variorum gathers the majority of her studies on the understanding of Islam in the West from the early Middle Ages until the mid 13th century some related works will be included in a further selection In the 12th century as she shows a serious effort was for the first time made to learn something of the reality behind the fabulous and scurrilous stories about Muhammad and Islam A collection of translations from Arabic including the Koran was commissioned in 1140 by Peter the Venerable of Cluny and d'Alverny found the manuscript in which his secretary wrote these out This discovery led her to explore other translations into Latin of the Koran and other Islamic texts to identify the work of the translators Hermann of Carinthia Robert of Ketton and Mark of Toledo and to depict the milieu in which this work was possible L'Islam Et la RZforme Victor Segeváry, 2002 This important study brings to light a little known but essential moment in the relations between Islam and Christianity the history of the 1542 publication of the Quaran Koran in Latin in Venice and Basel and the controversy surrounding the emergence of this work in religious reform circles This research relates the origins of European attitudes of tolerance to the Reformation and the reformers specific interest in non traditional religious theology and secular philosophy The Koran proved to be a major though overlooked element in this movement toward cultural heterodoxy
