Lord Shackleton,1998-08-18 His destination Antarctica his expectations high veteran explorer Sir Ernest Shackleton set out on the eve of the First World War in pursuit of his goal to lead the first expedition across the last unknown continent Instead his ship the Endurance became locked in sea ice and for nine months Shackleton fought a losing battle with the elements before the drifting ship was crushed and his crew marooned Shackleton's gripping account of his incredible voyage follows him and his men across 600 miles of unstable ice floes to a barren rock called Elephant Island. It records how with a crew of four he crossed 850 miles of the worst seas in a twenty-two foot long open boat and how after landing on South Georgia Island they then had to traverse over twenty miles of mountainous terrain to reach the nearest outpost of civilization. Shackleton recounts too the efforts of his support party aboard the Aurora who in temperatures of 50 degrees and winds of 80 mph still managed to drop off supplies on the opposite side of the continent little suspecting the fate of the Endurance and the ordeal of its crew. The harrowing experience recounted in Shackleton's memoir is also strikingly illustrated with eighty-eight diagrams and original photographs taken in the course of this incredible voyage.

Unpacking My Library Marcel Proust, 2017-01-01 A captivating tour of the bookshelves of ten leading artists exploring the intricate connections between reading, artistic practice and identity. Taking its inspiration from Walter Benjamin's seminal 1931 essay On Reading, the Unpacking My Library series charts a spirited exploration of the reading and book-collecting practices of today's leading thinkers. Artists and Their Books showcases the personal libraries of ten important contemporary artists based in the United States: Mark Dion, Theaster Gates, Wangechi Mutu, Ed Ruscha and Carrie Mae Weems; Canada: Janet Cardiff and George Bures Miller; and the United Kingdom: Billy Childish, Tracey Emin and Martin Parr. Through engaging interviews, the artists discuss the necessity of reading and the meaning of books in their lives and careers. This is a book about books, but it even more importantly highlights the role of literature in shaping an artist's self-presentation and persona. Photographs of each artist's bookshelves present an evocative glimpse of personal taste, of well-loved and rare volumes and of the individual touches that make a bookshelf one's own. The interviews are accompanied by top ten reading lists assembled by each artist, an introduction by Jo Steffens and Marcel Proust's seminal essay On Reading.

South Ernest Shackleton, 2013-10-31 As the first world war broke out across Europe, Shackleton's expedition to the South Pole became trapped by ice. Their ship, the Endurance, was crushed and the men were forced to survive in and escape from one of the world's most hostile environments. Traversing glaciers, scaling cliffs and crossing treacherous seas in open boats all the time threatened by brutal cold and hunger, the men, through their own strength and Shackleton's leadership, all made it to safety. This story makes the efforts of latter-day adventurers pale in comparison.
