languages was held from January to September 2009. There were eight main evaluation tracks in CLEF 2009 plus a pilot task. The aim as usual was to test the performance of a wide range of multilingual information access MLIA systems or system components. This year about 150 groups mainly but not only from academia registered to participate in the campaign. Most of the groups were from Europe but there was also a good contingent from North America and Asia. The results were presented at a two and a half day workshop held in Corfu, Greece, September 30 to October 2, 2009, in conjunction with the European Conference on Digital Libraries. The workshop, attended by 160 researchers and system developers, provided the opportunity for all the groups that had participated in the evaluation campaign to get together, compare approaches and exchange ideas.

New Energy Power Generation Automation and Intelligent Technology Pengfei Gu, Yang Xu, Weihua Chen, Zhongqiu Wang, Yongbin Sun, Zheming Liu, 2024-09-04. This book is the 1st volume of proceedings of the 1st Smart Nuclear Power Technology Forum and the 8th China Nuclear Power Plant Digital Technology and Application Seminar held in Shenzhen, China, in June 2024. This seminar aims to explore the software and hardware of digital and instrument control (IC) systems in nuclear power plants such as inspection, testing, certification and research of sensors, actuators and control systems and the application of electrical and intelligent operation and maintenance technologies. It aims to provide a platform for experts, scholars and nuclear power practitioners to exchange technology and share experience. At the same time, it also provides a platform for the combination of universities and enterprises in the aspects of production, education and research and promotes the safe development of nuclear power plants. In addition, readers will encounter new ideas to achieve more efficient and safer instruments and control systems.
