Language And Prejudice Tamara M Valentine:

An Interdisciplinary Bibliography on Language, Gender and Sexuality (2000–2011) Heiko Motschenbacher, 2012-09-11

This comprehensive state of the art bibliography documents the most recent research activity in the vibrant field of language gender and sexuality It provides experts in the field and students in tertiary education with access to language centred resources on gender and sexuality and is therefore an ideal research companion The main part of the bibliography lists 3 454 relevant publications monographs edited volumes journal articles and contributions to edited volumes that have been published within the period from 2000 to 2011 It unites work done in linguistics with that of neighbouring disciplines covering studies dealing with a broad range of languages and cultures around the globe Alphabetical listing and a keyword index facilitate finding relevant work by author and subject matter The e book version additionally enables users to search the entire document for specific terms Sections on earlier bibliographies and general reference works on language gender and sexuality complete the compilation

Language, Gender and Sexual Identity Heiko Motschenbacher, 2010 This book makes an innovative contribution to the relatively young field of Queer Linguistics Subscribing to a poststructuralist framework it presents a critical deconstructionist perspective on the discursive construction of heteronormativity and gender binarism from a linguistic point of view On the one hand the book provides an outline of Queer approaches to issues of language gender and sexual identity that is of interest to students and scholars new to the field On the other hand the empirical analyses of language data represent material that also appeals to experts in the field The book deals with repercussions of the discursive materialisation of heteronormativity and gender binarism in various kinds of linguistic data These include stereotypical genderlects structural linguistic gender categories especially from a contrastive linguistic point of view the discursive sedimentation of female and feminine generics linguistic constructions of the gendered body in advertising and the usage of personal reference forms to create characters in Queer Cinema Throughout the book readers become aware of the wounding potential that gendered linguistic forms may possess in certain contexts

Turf Wars

Gabriella Gahlia Modan, 2008-04-15 Turf Wars Discourse Diversity and the Politics of Place is the fascinating story of an urban neighborhood undergoing rapid gentrification Explores how members of a multi ethnic multi class Washington DC community deploy language to legitimize themselves as community members while discrediting others Discusses such issues as public toilets and public urination the morality of co ops and condos and characterizations of good girls and bad boys Draws on linguistic anthropology and discourse analysis to provide insight into the ways that local activity shapes larger urban social processes Draws also on cultural geography and urban anthropology

The Changing World of Work, 2006
