Writing Dancing in the Age of Postmodernism Sally Banes, 2011-03-01 Drawing of the postmodern perspective and concerns that informed her groundbreaking Terpsichore in Sneakers Sally Banes's Writing Dancing documents the background and developments of avant garde and popular dance analyzing individual artists performances and entire dance movements With a sure grasp of shifting cultural dynamics Banes shows how postmodern dance is integrally connected to other oppositional often marginalized strands of dance culture and considers how certain kinds of dance move from the margins to the mainstream Banes begins by considering the act of dance criticism itself exploring its modes methods and underlying assumptions and examining the work of other critics She traces the development of contemporary dance from the early work of such influential figures as Merce Cunningham and George Balanchine to such contemporary choreographers as Molissa Fenley Karole Armitage and Michael Clark She analyzes the contributions of the Judson Dance Theatre and the Workers Dance League the emergence of Latin postmodern dance in New York and the impact of black jazz in Russia In addition Banes explores such untraditional performance modes as breakdancing and the drunk dancing of Fred Astaire

Strategic Ambiguity: The Obscure, Nebulous, and Vague in Symbolist Prints La Salle University Art Museum, 2013-03-12 Exhibition catalogue for Strategic Ambiguity: The Obscure, Nebulous and Vague in Symbolist Prints December 6 2012 to March 1 2013 at the La Salle University Art Museum. The prints in this exhibition demonstrate how the Symbolist fascination with ambiguity seen in their choices of subject matter: i.e. half human half animal hybrids such as harpies and sphinxes; gender ambiguity and androgyny; extended to formal strategies of representation that obscure form as well as content. This exhibition places Symbolist art in the context of Modernism by focusing on the ways in which artists experimented with print media and explored technical means of suggesting formal ambiguity: i.e. flattening, abstracting, obscuring both to better match form and content and to push the boundaries of figurative art. The exhibition features work by artists Odilon Redon, Jan Toorop, Paul Gauguin, Maurice Denis, douard Vuillard, Félix Vallotton, Henri Ibels, Pierre Bonnard, Félix Buhot, Pierre Roche, Henri Martin, Armand Point, Maurice Dumont, Jeanne Jacquemin, Georges de Feure, François Marius Valère, Bernard Carlos Schwabe and others. Print techniques represented in this survey range from lithography and etching to gypsography. The exhibition catalogue features essays by the curator and La Salle faculty from the disciplines of art history and philosophy.

A Cultural History of Dress and Fashion in the Renaissance Elizabeth Currie, 2018-11-01. Spurred by an increasingly international and competitive market, the Renaissance saw the development of many new fabrics and the use of highly prized ingredients imported from the New World. In response to a thirst for the new, fashion's pace of change accelerated; the production of garments provided employment for an increasingly significant proportion of the working population, and entrepreneurial artisans began to transform even the most functional garments into fashionable ones. Anxieties concerning vanity and the power of clothing to mask identities heightened fears of fashion's corrupting influence and heralded the great age of sumptuary legislation intended to police status and gender through dress. Drawing on sources from surviving garments to artworks to moralising pamphlets, this richly illustrated volume presents essays on textiles, production and distribution, the body, belief, gender and sexuality, status, ethnicity and visual and literary representations to illustrate the diversity and cultural significance of dress and fashion in the period.
