

MIDDLE CHILD

Harper stands outside, waiting to be picked up from karate class.

HARPER

It's fine, it's totally fine. So what if Dad's late? He probably just got stuck in traffic and will be here any minute to pick me up. Yeah, yeah, any minute. I mean, karate class only got out ten minutes ago, so it's not like I've been abandoned or anything. It's not like he's just forgotten about me. It's not like it's totally easy to forget that I, the middle child, even exist, until it's midnight and Dad's like, "I feel like I forgot something. Was it to pick up milk? Or the dry cleaning? NOPE! It was my CHILD, Harper!" Oh, who am I kidding?! That's exactly what happened! I have been completely forgotten! They'll move on, and I'll never see my family ever again!!!

(Harper notices something.)

Dad? Hey! I didn't see you parked over there. I hope I didn't keep you waiting.

Monologues for Teens and How to Master Them Jon Emm, 2018-06-28 This book of comedic and dramatic monologues for teens follows a previous book of monologues for kids I call it The Acting Coach Approach because each original monologue comes with a series of questions The questions help you build a backstory for your character They are questions good actors ask themselves with every role they play The questions will also help you memorize the piece by making you see images instead of words on a page Answer the questions and you will build characters that are vibrant connected and interesting to watch One on One: Playing with a Purpose Bob Shuman, Stephen Fife, 2013-05-01 Kids of today face a different world and a different set of challenges than did the children of even 15 years ago Playing with a Purpose features a collection of monologues that reflects these new attitudes and circumstances Highly diversified in its view of the family and the child's place in the world the monologues have been chosen from several sources from contemporary playwrights and screenwriters from YouthPlays a new company that specializes in publishing cutting edge plays for the youth market and from such conservatories for young actors as The Playground the Los Angeles based training center run by Gary Spatz the leading acting coach for performers ages 6 to 16 Playing with a purpose is an idea that arose from Fife's work with young actors over the course of several decades Monologues for Teens and Twenties Jim Chevallier, 2003-11-10 Monologues for young adult actors teens and twenties excerpted from Jim Chevallier's original collection The Monologue Bin Monologues for Youth Sylvia Valevicius, 2014-12-11 Young people have stories to tell They have things to say Their feelings need expression whatever the issues Often the issues are about feelings belonging and friendships They need non judgmental listeners And yet a sense of personal privacy gets in the way What better way to release this pent up energy than speaking vocalizing from the theatrical masks of drama Monologues for Youth Volume 1 makes a great outlet for emotional issues The monologues are fun both to read and to give voice to in front of an implied silent audience How often we wish people would be quiet when we have something to say These are not soliloquies inner thoughts alone but pieces that speak out reach out to others who are actually paying attention Excellent for auditions easy to memorize because of their timeless miniature scenarios These monologues include parts for males and females in the eleven to twenty age group they are great for in school drama classes and theater arts programs after school recreation programs camps and clubs For teachers parents coaches Monologues for Youth Volume 1 also offers a fresh way to inspire creative writing for your young person Individuals may write their own pieces or reply to the given ones The monologues also bring a new confidence to your introvert child and fulfill the extrovert's needs to be a star Best Contemporary Monologues for Kids Ages 7-15 Lawrence

Harbison, 2000-01-01 Inside these pages aspiring young performers will find 75 challenging monologues just right for kids All of the pieces are about subjects appropriate for production in schools much of it serious and challenging which will interest child performers without offending administrators teachers or parents Some are comical some are dramatic and some are seriocomic a little bit of both Most of the monologues are from plays and some are original pieces written especially for this book Despite the listed age of each character these monologues can all be performed by kids of any age The collection features wonderful monologues by some of our finest playwrights such as Don Nigro Cassandra Lewis Reina Hardy Kayla Cagan Jenny Lyn Bader Eric Coble Glenn Alterman Constance Congdon and Barbara Dana It also highlights exciting up and comers such as Sharon Goldner Gabriel David Deanna Alisa Ableser Martha Patterson David Eliet Connie Schindewolf Mark Lambeck and Phoebe Farmer My First Monologue Book Kristen Dabrowski, 2006 This groundbreaking new series is for truly young actors monologues scenes and technique book for the elementary school set Each book builds on the one before it so skills grow as students grow Often young children are given work written for older actors that is difficult for them to understand and retain This material is comprehensible relatable and fun For all the young characters and performers there is finally a book for you And within this series an exciting collection that breaks down barriers Square pegs don't fit into round holes It's that simple Specifically for young actors of Hispanic descent M Ramirez has written a group of books for second third fourth generation immigrant kids who don't often feel included in a lot of the literature they're surrounded with References to abuelos abuelas and other cultural specifics help make these performance pieces a little more accessible to kids who might or might not be speaking English as a second language all with a specific flavor that will help young actors find their voices and stretch themselves performing pieces that speak not only about them but directly to them Because of the Latino flavor incorporated into this material these kids can focus on what they are meant to focus on performing without any cultural barriers KIDS These books tell you about how to act and give you some excellent characters to play There are also many many games and activities P S They may also make you the smartest kid you know TEACHERS This series provides ample material for classroom use In addition the Teacher's Guide will give tips and ideas to use in classrooms PARENTS If you've got a natural performer in the house this book provides some simple pieces for auditioning horsing around or performing in the living room These books are both fun and educational AGENTS MANAGERS These monologues are immediate and active with different emotions and levels within each monologue Great for auditions Everyday life was never so nutty Inside you'll find imaginative what if pieces for would be princesses cowboys robots and superheroes as well as real life issues like unfair bedtimes making new friends and the horrible taste of broccoli At this stage in life there are lots of firsts too like going to a new school and losing your teeth so there are plenty of topics for children to connect with short accessible selections on common topics such as games families food friends school and wishes The true to life experiences and emotions are delivered in a child s voice and run the gamut from funny to serious The book has several classroom applications including public speaking memorization journal writing and storytelling While there are other monologue titles for elementary children the selections in My First Monologue Book are much shorter and easier to memorize or analyze
