Side by Side T.J. Ray,2016-02-10 A true crime story of a gruesome double homicide in the Jim Crow South and the manhunt and trial that followed In Oxford Mississippi the dawn of the twentieth century seemed to present a sweeping landscape of progress and possibility But under this veneer of technological advancement cultural achievement and prosperity lurked a stubborn core of racial discrimination rampant criminal brutality and violence On a Sunday morning in 1901 the mutilated corpses of two federal marshals were discovered in the smoldering remains of the home of a notorious local malefactor The murders committed by moonshiner and counterfeiter Will Mathis and his father in law s servant Orlando Lester captivated the nation The crimes ignited a manhunt a trial marked by desperate lies and legerdemain and a media frenzy around the hanging of a white man and a black man side by side This enthralling account centers on two men judged unequal in life but equal in death The story draws on primary sources to craft a spellbinding narrative of singular immediacy and vitality With the consummate skill of a master raconteur author T J Ray powerfully evokes an era a community and its people
