Makerere University Private List 2015 2016:

States and Public Policy Olivier Provini, 2025-08-03 Why did students start paying tuition fees at African universities How did public universities become increasingly expensive for the large numbers of young people they are supposed to be educating This book helps us to understand the reasons for this and reminds us that change is always the result of political compromise The book looks at the higher education reforms carried out since the 1980s in four East African countries with unique historical and political trajectories Uganda Kenya Tanzania and Burundi Through a rigorous well documented analysis the author provides valuable insights into the fundamental political issues facing development actors in the South the transformation of state intervention the training of national elites and the marketing of the education sector particularly through the highly political issue of school fees

Enhancing Innovation in the Ugandan Agri-Food Sector: Robusta Coffee Planting Material & Tropical Fruit Processing World Intellectual Property Organization, Travis J.

Lybbert, Gracious Diiro, Dick Kawooya, Sacha Wunsch-Vincent, 2017 Uganda's innovation performance in recent years has consistently outpaced other low income and Sub Saharan African countries Though encouraging this nascent progress will only benefit the broader Ugandan population if policy makers address specific constraints in the innovation systems of the critical agri food sector which is hampered by low productivity and profitability In this report we explore these constraints using an agricultural value chains framework with particular focus on the Robusta Coffee Planting Material Pipeline and tropical fruit processing

The National Council for Higher Education and the Growth of the University Sub-sector in Uganda, 2002-2012 Kasozi, A.B.K., 2017-05-05 The National Council for Higher Education NCHE and the Growth of the University Sub sector in Uganda 2002 2012 narrates the experience of the Ugandan NCHE in the establishment development and regulation of higher education institutions in Uganda from 2002 to 2012 In this period student numbers in higher education institutions increased from about 65 000 to some 200 000 and university institutions from about ten to more than triple the number The book discusses the role of a regulatory agency in the delivery of higher education the relations of universities and colleges with such an agency its impact on developing university capacities and leadership in creating and refining higher education ideas The experience of Uganda's regulatory agency the NCHE in those ten years should help both the Ugandan and other African countries higher education stakeholders in sharing lessons learned from this one case study The author sees the roles of regulatory agencies as vital in the initial stages of building a higher education sub sector and in periods of system transitions such as the current journey from elite to mass systems but is of the view that the university remains the home of knowledge creation dissemination and its application in society

Ugandan English Christiane Meierkord, Bebwa Isingoma, Saudah Namyalo, 2016-10-20 Ugandan English is a variety that has scarcely been noticed in past research This timely volume brings together African and European scholars in a first ever collection of articles that offer comprehensive discussions of the historical and present day sociolinguistics of English in Uganda and fine grained analyses of the structural characteristics of and attitudes to this hitherto largely unknown variety Using rich archive corpus and interview data as well as ethnographic and observational methods the various contributions paint a comprehensive picture of Ugandan English as distinct from other East African Englishes and as characterized by nativisation despite a still strong exonormative orientation reflecting the modern nation s status as a post protectorate under the influence of globalisation Apart from advancing our understanding of Ugandan English itself the individual chapters contribute to theoretical debates on language contact and variation as regards the influence of substrate languages founder populations language ideologies and socio economic factors Scholars in the Marketplace. The Dilemmas of Neo-Liberal Reform at Makerere University, 1989-2005 Mahmood Mamdani, 2007-09-15 Scholars in the Marketplace is a case study of market based reforms at Uganda s Makerere University With the World Bank heralding neoliberal reform at Makerere as the model for the transformation of higher education in Africa it has implications for the whole continent At the global level the Makerere case exemplifies the fate of public universities in a market oriented and capital friendly era The Makerere reform began in the 1990s and was based on the premise that higher education is more of a private than a public good Instead of pitting the public against the private and the state against the market this book shifts the terms of the debate toward a third alternative than explores different relations between the two The book distinguishes between privatisation and commercialisation two processes that drove the Makerere reform It argues that whereas privatisation the entry of privately sponsored students is compatible with a public university where priorities are publicly set commercialisation financial and administrative autonomy for each faculty to design a market responsive curriculum inevitably leads to a market determination of priorities in a public university The book warns against commercialisation of public universities as the subversion of public institutions for private purposes Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1999 Kenya Gazette , 1952-09-30 The Kenya Gazette is an official publication of the government of the Republic of Kenya It contains notices of new legislation notices required to be published by law or policy as well as other announcements that are published for general public information It is published every week usually on Friday with occasional releases of special or supplementary editions within the week Parliamentary Debates (Hansard) Uganda.
