America and the Production of Islamic Truth in Uganda Yahya Sseremba, 2023-05-16 This book investigates the ways in which the war on terror has transformed the postcolonial state in Africa Taking American intervention in Islamic education in Uganda as the entry point the book demonstrates how state control over Islamic truth production and everyday Muslim life has increased During the colonial period the Muslims in Uganda were governed in two ways partly as lesser citizens within the Christian dominated civil sphere and partly as members of a distinct Muslim domain In this domain a local system of Islamic education developed with a degree of autonomy that reflected the limits of the colonial state in shaping the Muslim subject In the subsequent postcolonial period systems of patronage and clientelistic networks dominated and Muslim leaders were co-opted by the state but without much real interference in the day to day lives of ordinary Muslims However as part of the war on terror the US State Department seeks to bring the mechanisms of Islamic truth production especially the madrasa under direct state control and civil society scrutiny This book argues that the Muslim domain as a separate entity is coming to an end as it is being absorbed into the civil sphere unifying the state's domination of society The book also analyzes local Ugandan Muslim initiatives to modernise and contextualize their own education and religion and how these initiatives are shaped by and transcend the dominant power A thorough exploration of US foreign policy and Islamic education this book will be of interest to students and scholars in the fields of Political Studies African Studies and Religious Studies A Proud Product Of

Guyana's Bitter-Sweet Sugar Nowrang Persaud, 2018-07-27 This is an attempt to briefly record my long life story as a Guyanese who evolved from a broken parental home and the pits of poverty in colonial British Guiana to become first a successful school teacher and an unconventional school administrator I then won a coveted Cadetship offered by the expatriate firm of Bookers Sugar Estates Ltd which owned and operated the sugar industry in the colony This was the catalyst that provided the springboard for my launching into the field of Human Resource Management initially in the sugar industry in Guyana then in Canada followed by exciting assignments literally across the world with the United Nations Children Fund a field based agency of the United Nations before ending with a return to base in Guyana Primate
