Counter-Terrorism Policing Sharon Pickering,Jude McCulloch,David Wright-Neville,2008-01-01 Counter Terrorism Policing examines the impact of terrorism on the policing organisation and culturally diverse communities This book is the first of its kind to contextualise counter terrorism policing in a conceptual framework and takes account of the unique challenge of the increasing cosmopolitan character of major cities Based on detailed documentary and ethnographic research it holds significant lessons for cosmopolitan cities around the world The Communications Industries in the Era of Convergence Catherine E. A. Mulligan,2013-03-01 This book provides a unique view of the evolution of these industries drawing out how technology and economic forces have worked together to create platforms around which different companies interact Through identifying the key aspects of this evolution over the past decades the author is able to put forward a unique view of the emerging industrial structure of the communications industries the formation of an Information Driven Global Commodity Chain one that holds both incredible promise and challenges for our world Imprisoned Fathers Catherine Flynn,Michelle Butler,2020-05-21 This volume specifically examines current concerns about imprisoned fathers and highlights best practices with a group of children and parents who present significant vulnerabilities It brings together contemporary works in this area to share and consolidate knowledge to encourage comparisons and collaborations across jurisdictions and to stimulate debate all with the aim of furthering knowledge and improving practice in this area Although there is considerable focus on imprisoned mothers there is limited knowledge or understanding of the needs experiences or effective responses to imprisoned fathers and their children despite men making up the vast majority of the prison population The ongoing and negative impact of parental incarceration on children is well documented and includes emotional and behavioural consequences marginalisation and stigma as well as financial and social stresses However understanding of these processes and importantly what can assist children and families is poor This book seeks to add to the understanding of paternal imprisonment by providing an in depth exploration of how the arrest detention and experiences of fathers during imprisonment can affect their ability to parent and meet the needs of their children This book was originally published as a special issue of Child Care in Practice Public and Private

Enforcement of Securities Laws Michael Legg,2022-02-10 This book undertakes unique case studies including interviews with participants as well as empirical analysis of public and private enforcement of Australian securities laws addressing continuous disclosure Enforcement of laws is crucial to effective regulation Historically enforcement was the province of a government regulator with significant discretion public enforcement However more and more citizens are being expected to take action themselves private enforcement Consistent with regulatory pluralism public and private enforcement exist in parallel with the capacity to both help and hinder each other and the achievement of the goals of enforcement in a range of areas of regulation The rise of the shareholder class action in Australia backed by litigation funding or lawyers has given rise to enforcement overlapping with that of the government regulator the Australian Securities and Investments Commission The ramifications of overlapping enforcement are explained based on detailed analysis The analysis is further bolstered by the regulator s approach to enforcement changing from a compliance orientation to a Why not litigate approach The analysis and ramifications of the Australian case studies involve matters of regulatory theory and practice that apply across jurisdictions The book will appeal to practitioners regulators and academics interested in regulatory policy and enforcement and the operation of regulators and class actions including their interaction

Revisiting Rural Places Jonathan Rigg, Peter Vandergeest, 2012 In Revisiting Rural Places scholars return to sites of their earlier research in Southeast Asia to examine how the rapid pace of change in the countryside affected places spaces and people that they originally studied decades ago Each of the 14 core chapters is organized around a change that based on broader trends the authors did not anticipate a new longhouse in Sarawak the urban forests of Java the assertion of an ethnic minority identity in Northern Thailand the re shaping of class relations and identities in the Philippines and the uncontested sell off of farmland to cacao entrepreneurs in Sulawesi These outcomes pose a challenge to conventional understandings of how the countryside is being re shaped and to what effect The accounts in this volume map out diverse pathways to poverty or prosperity Families who seemed trapped in poverty decades ago have prospered owing to non farm and educational opportunities Others have unexpectedly been thrust into relative deprivation by industrial agriculture rural industrialization or destructive natural resource extraction The breadth of the material makes this unique and exceptionally rich account of rural change a valuable classroom tool as well as an important source of information for a broad spectrum of institutions and other stakeholders from the World Bank to NGOs and rural activists
