Educational Policies and Practices of English-Speaking Refugee Resettlement Countries ,2019-05-27 Since 2014 the international community has felt overwhelmed by refugees and asylum seekers searching for opportunities in which to rebuild their lives Indeed large numbers can result in turmoil and concern in resettlement countries and with national citizens A climate of fear can result especially if perpetuated by politicians and media that suggest negative effects resulting from immigration Caught in the crossfire of social and political disagreements about migration are children most of whom are not included in decisions to leave their homelands This edited book examines their academic challenges from the perspective of the six English speaking refugee resettlement countries Our hope is not only to compare challenges but also to describe successes by which teachers and policymakers can consider new approaches to help refugee and asylum seeking children Educational Policies and Practices of English Speaking Refugee Resettlement Countries offers perspectives from established and new scholars examining educational situations for refugees and asylum seekers The top three resettlement countries are the United States Canada and Australia For its size New Zealand is also proportionately a country of high resettlement New to resettlement are the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland Thus this collection includes wisdom from countries that began resettlement during World War Two as well as newcomers to the process In 2018 UNHCR numbers of displaced people reached a record high of 68 5 million Policymakers teachers social service providers and the general public need to understand ways to help resettled refugees become productive members in their new countries of residence Contributors are Samantha Arnold Asih Asikin Garmager Melanie Baak Sally Baker Zhiyan Basharati Briana Byers Merike Darmody Lucia Dore Ain A Grooms Maria Hayward Asher Hirsch Amanda Hiorth Caroline Lenette Leslie Ann Locke Duhita Mahatmya Jody L McBrien Rory Mc Daid Helen Murphy Tara Ross Jan Stewart and Elizabeth P Tonogbanua

Multilingualism, (Im)mobilities and Spaces of Belonging Kristine Horner,Jennifer Dailey-O'Cain,2019-10-11 Certain forms of mobility and multilingualism tend to be portrayed as problematic in the public sphere while others are considered to be unremarkable Divided into three thematic sections this book explores the contestation of spaces and the notion of borders examines the ways in which heritage and authenticity are linked or challenged and interrogates the intersections between mobility and hierarchies and the ways that language can be linked to notions of belonging and aspirations for mobility Based on fieldwork in Africa Asia Australasia and Europe it explores how language functions as both site of struggle and as a means of overcoming struggle This volume will be of particular interest to scholars taking ethnographic and critical sociolinguistic approaches to the study of language and belonging in the context of globalisation Manitoba Law Journal: Underneath the Golden Boy 2018 Volume 41(1) Bryan P. Schwartz, et al., Underneath the Golden Boy series of the Manitoba Law Journal reports on developments in legislation and on parliamentary and democratic reform in Manitoba Canada and beyond This issue has articles from a variety of contributing authors including Bryan P Schwartz Darcy L MacPherson Richard H

Helmmoltz Jennifer L Schulz Richard Jochelson David Ireland John Burchill Gerard J Kennedy Virginia Torrie Ben Wickstrom Yassir Alnaji and Constancia Smart Carvalho      Province Building and the Federalization of immigration in Canada Mireille Paquet, 2019-03-14 Most accounts of the provincial role in Canadian immigration focus on the experience of Quebec In Province Building and the Federalization of Immigration in Canada Mireille Paquet shows that between 1990 and 2010 all ten provinces became closely involved in immigrant selection and integration This considerable change to the Canadian model of immigration governance corresponds to a broader process of federalization of immigration by which both orders of government became active in the management of immigration While Canada maintains its overall positive approach to newcomers the provinces developed and continue to develop their own formal immigration strategies and implement various selections and integration policies This book argues that the process of federalization is largely the result of provincial mobilization In each province mobilization occurred through a modern iteration of province building this time focused on immigrants as resources for provincial economies and societies Advocating for a province centred analysis of federalism Province Building and the Federalization of Immigration in Canada provides key lessons to understanding the contemporary governance of immigration in Canada      Bayanihan and Belonging Alison R. Marshall, 2018-01-01 Drawing on archival and ethnographic research in Canada and the Philippines from 1880 to 2017 Bayanihan and Belonging aims to understand the role of religion within present day Filipino Canadian communities      Compassionate Migration and Regional Policy in the Americas Steven W. Bender, William F. Arrocha, 2017-04-20 This book explores the contested notion of compassionate migration in its discourse and practice In the context of today's migration patterns within the Americas compassionate migration can play a fundamental role in responding to the hardships that many migrants suffer before during and after their journeys This volume explores the boundaries of compassion from legal political philosophical and interdisciplinary perspectives and supplies examples where state and non state actors engage in practices of compassion and humanity through formal and informal regimes Despite the lack of a concise and precise definition of the concept and practice of compassionate migration all authors in this volume agree on the pressing need for more humane and compassionate treatment for those leaving their home country behind in search of a better life      Farm Workers in Western Canada Shirley A. McDonald, Bob Barnettson, 2017-01-16 Bill 6 the government of Alberta's contentious farm workers safety legislation sparked public debate as no other legislation has done in recent years The Enhanced Protection for Farm and Ranch Workers Act provides a right to work safely and a compensation system for those killed or injured at work similar to other provinces In nine essays contributors to Farm Workers in Western Canada place this legislation in context They look at the origins work conditions and precarious lives of farm workers in terms of larger historical forces such as colonialism land rights and racism They also examine how the rights and privileges of farm workers including seasonal and temporary foreign workers conflict with those of their employers and reveal the barriers many face by being excluded from most statutory employment laws sometimes in violation of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms Contributors Gianna Argento Bob Barnettson Michael J Broadway Jill Bucklaschuk Delna Contractor Darlene A Dunlop Brynna Hambly Takasugi Zane Hamm Paul Kennett Jennifer Koshan C F Andrew Lau J Graham Martinelli Shirley A McDonald Robin C McIntyre Nelson Medeiros Kerry Preibisch Heidi Rolfe Patricia Tomic Ricardo Trumper and Kay Elizabeth Turner     Settlements at the Edge Andrew Taylor, Dean B. Carson, Prescott C. Ensign, Lee Huskey, Rasmus Ole Rasmussen, 2016-09-30 Settlements at the Edge examines the evolution characteristics functions and shifting economic basis of settlements in sparsely populated areas of developed nations With a focus on demographic change the book features theoretical and applied cases which explore the interface between demography economy well being and the environment This book offers a comprehensive and insightful knowledge base for understanding the role of population in shaping the development and histories of northern sparsely populated areas of developed nations including Alaska USA Australia Canada Greenland Norway Russia Sweden Finland and other nations with territories within the Arctic Circle     Writing the Roma Cynthia Levine-Rasky, 2016-09-13T00:00:00Z The culmination of four years of ethnographic research at the Roma Community Centre in Toronto Writing the Roma is the first book to provide an overview of the identities origins history and treatment of Roma refugees Cynthia Levine Rasky traces the historical and cultural roots of the Roma in Europe through their genocide in the Holocaust their persecution in Eastern Europe in the post Communist era to their settlement as refugees in Canada What emerges is a book that challenges the stereotypes surrounding this non territorial nation while exposing the ways that Canadian immigration policies have affected Roma populations     Human Rights and Judicial Review in Australia and Canada Janina Boughey, 2017-06-15 It is commonly asserted that bills of rights have had a righting effect on the principles of judicial review of administrative action and have been a key driver of the modern expansion in judicial oversight of the executive arm of government A number of commentators have pointed to Australian administrative law as evidence for this righting hypothesis They have suggested that the fact that Australia is an outlier among common law jurisdictions in having neither a statutory nor a constitutional framework to expressly protect human rights explains why Australia alone continues to take an apparently formalist legalist and conservative approach to administrative law Other commentators and judges including a number in Canada have argued the opposite that bills of rights have the effect of stifling the development of the common law However for the most part all these claims remain just that there has been limited detailed analysis of the issue and no detailed comparative analysis of the veracity of the claims This book analyses in detail the interaction between administrative and human rights law in Australia and Canada arguing that both jurisdictions have reached remarkably similar positions regarding the balance between judicial and executive power and between broader fundamental principles including the rule of law parliamentary sovereignty and the separation of powers It will provide valuable reading for all those researching judicial review and human rights     New Faces in the Crowd Economic Council of Canada, 1991 Examines trends particularly since 1972 and makes projections to the year 2015 and beyond

Science Education in Canada Christine D. Tippet, Todd M. Milford, 2019-07-01 This book offers a meso level description of demographics science education and science teacher education Representing all 13 Canadian jurisdictions the book provides local insights that serve as the basis for exploring the Canadian system as a whole and function as a common starting point from which to identify causal relationships that may be associated with Canada's successes The book highlights commonalities consistencies and distinctions across the provinces and territories in a thematic analysis of the 13 jurisdiction specific chapters Although the analysis indicates a network of policy and practice issues warranting further consideration the diverse nature of Canadian science education makes simple identification of causal relationships elusive Canada has a reputation for strong science achievement However there is currently limited literature on science education in Canada at the general level or in specific areas such as Canadian science curriculum or science teacher education This book fills that gap by presenting a thorough description of science education at the provincial territorial level as well as a more holistic description of pressing issues for Canadian science education

Neoliberal Contentions Lois Harder, Catherine Kellogg, Steve Patten, 2022-12-21 Since the 1980s neoliberalism has had a major impact on social life and in turn research in the social sciences Emerging from the crisis of the Keynesian welfare state neoliberalism describes a social transformation that has impacted relationships between citizens and the state consumers and the market and individuals and groups Neoliberal Contentions offers original essays that explore neoliberalism in its various guises It includes chapters on economic policy and restructuring resource extraction multiculturalism and equality migration and citizenship health reform housing policy and 2SLGBTQ communities Drawing on the work of influential Canadian political economist Janine Brodie the contributors use Brodie's scholarship as a springboard for their own distinct analyses of pressing political and social issues Acknowledging neoliberalism's crises failures and contradictions this collection contends with neoliberalism by diagnosing the present situating the phenomenon within a broader historical and political economic context and observing instances in which neoliberal rationality is reinforced as well as resisted

Controversies in the Common Law Vanessa Gruben, Graham Mayeda, Owen Rees, 2022-10-03 Beverley McLachlin was the first woman to be Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada Joining the Court while it was establishing its approach to the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms McLachlin aided the court in weathering the public backlash against controversial decisions during her tenure Controversies in the Common Law explores Chief Justice McLachlin's approach to legal reasoning examines her remarkable contributions in controversial areas of the common law and highlights the role of judicial philosophy in shaping the law Chapters in this book span thirty years and deal with a variety of topics including tort unjust enrichment administrative and criminal law The contributors show that McLachlin had a philosophical streak that drove her to ensure unity and consistency in the common law and to prefer incremental change over revolution Celebrating the career of an influential jurist Controversies in the Common Law demonstrates how the common law approach taken by Chief Justice McLachlin has been successful in managing criticism and ensuring the legitimacy of the Court      Reconstructions of Canadian Identity Vander Tavares, Maria João Maciel Jorge, 2024-04-19 Re envisioning multiculturalism in Canada In 1971 Canada became the first nation in the world to officially declare its bilingual and multicultural policies Reconstructions of Canadian Identity examines what has changed over the past fifty years highlighting the lived experiences of marginalized Canadians and offering insights into the critical work that lies ahead Editors Vander Tavares and Maria Jo o Maciel Jorge bring together a wide range of disciplines and perspectives to investigate inclusion and exclusion within the processes discourses and practices that forge and frame Canadian identity Chapters analyze ways current multicultural policies continue to benefit the dominant groups and further harm minoritized ones Exposing the pitfalls of established notions of Canadian identity this volume moves traditionally othered identities immigrant racialized hybridized Indigenous and women to the forefront In doing so it reveals how these identities negotiate and claim legitimacy arguing for a reconceptualization from the margins that truly fosters diversity and inclusion Illustrating both the shortcomings of and possibilities for a more inclusive multiculturalism in Canada Reconstructions of Canadian Identity invites readers to reflect on what it means to be Canadian in the twenty first century      Intergovernmental Relations on Immigrant Integration in Multi-Level States Ilke Adam, Eve Hepburn, 2021-07-12 This book explores how governments in multi level states coordinate immigrant integration policies It sheds light on how the decentralization of immigrant integration to substate regions can lead to conflict or cooperation and how a variety of factors may shape different approaches to migrants Immigrant integration is an increasingly important policy area for governments However in multi level states immigrant integration is rarely the responsibility of the central government Instead it is often decentralized to substate regions which may have formulated their own unique approaches The way in which migrants are included into one part of a state may therefore be radically different from the experiences of migrants in another How do multi level states deal with potentially diverging approaches This book examines how governments coordinate on immigrant integration in multi level states Four multi level states form the backbone of the analysis two of which are federal Canada and Belgium and two that are decentralized Italy and Spain We find that intergovernmental dynamics on immigrant integration are shaped by a variety of factors ranging from party politics to constitutional power struggles This analysis contributes not only to our understanding of intergovernmental relations in multi level systems it also enhances our knowledge of the myriad ways in which different regions seek to include migrants into their societies economies and political systems The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Regional and Federal Studies      A Culture of Justification Paul Daly, 2023-08-15 Canadian administrative law was bedevilled for many decades by uncertainty and confusion In 2019 the Supreme Court of Canada sought to bring this chaos to an end in its landmark decision Canada Minister of Citizenship and Immigration v Vavilov In A Culture of Justification Paul Daly explains why Canada s administrative law was uncertain and confusing and he assesses the proposition that Vavilov provides a roadmap to a brighter future Looking at administrative law from its historic origins in sixteenth and seventeenth century England identifying the complexity of its underlying structure and describing divergent judicial attitudes to the growing administrative state Daly builds a framework for understanding why multiple previous reform efforts failed and why Vavilov might very well succeed This engaging study shows readers how a newly emerged culture of justification allows courts and citizens to insist on the reasoned exercise of public power by the administrative state

International Education as Public Policy in Canada Merli Tamtik,Roopa Desai Trilokekar,Glen A. Jones,2020-10-07 In the early twenty first century international education emerged as an almost ubiquitous concept within discussions of educational curriculum the objectives of schools universities and colleges and government policies for K 12 and higher education Although far from a new phenomenon many jurisdictions now view international education as a highly competitive global industry This book provides a comprehensive analysis of international education policy in Canada tracing the complex history of when how and why it emerged as a policy area of strategic importance Illuminating a uniquely Canadian perspective influenced by regional interests and federal provincial tensions International Education as Public Policy in Canada addresses challenging questions Why was Canada a latecomer in addressing this policy issue What is the relationship between international education and Canadian immigration policy How did international education develop as a major Canadian industry The resulting essays from leading scholars contribute not only to the growing Canadian literature on international education policy but also to a critical global conversation Contemplating where the Canadian story of international education is headed International Education as Public Policy in Canada calls for a broader debate on ethical practices in internationalization focusing on inclusion equity compassion and reciprocity

Russian Germans on Four Continents Anna Flack,Jan Musekamp,Jannis Panagiotidis,Hans-Christian Petersen,2023-12-11 The history of Russian Germans Russlanddeutsche is one of intensive mobility across space and time Today the descendants of eighteenth century German speaking settlers in the Russian Empire live on four continents Europe Asia and North and South America In this volume authors from the fields of history sociology cultural studies and sociolinguistics analyze key issues of the history and present of this globally connected diaspora group from an interdisciplinary angle Contributions address the institutional regimes and networks that shaped and continue to shape the mobility of Russian Germans on a global scale the impact of war and violence on the history of this group during the Age of Extremes and the language shifts that accompanied their multiple global moves Its interdisciplinary and geographic diversity makes this volume a unique contribution to research on migration global diaspora transnationalism and practices of belonging By analyzing the multiple pathways of migration entanglement and belonging of people designated as Russian Germans in past and present its chapters provide fresh insight into the making and unmaking of a global diaspora

Citizenship as a Regime Mireille Paquet,Nora Nagels,Aude-Claire Fourot,2018-07-02 State building is an ongoing process that first defines legitimate citizenship and then generates citizens Political analysts and social scientists now use the concept of citizenship as a lens for considering both the evolution of states and the development of their societies In Citizenship as a Regime leading political scientists from Canada Europe and Latin America use insights from comparative politics institutionalism and political economy to understand and analyze the dynamics of contemporary policies and politics This book celebrates Jane Jenson s work and many of her contributions to political science and the study of Canadian politics Featuring Jenson s concept of citizenship regime the collected chapters consider its theoretical and methodological underpinning and presents new applications to various empirical contexts Contributors present original research critically assess the idea of a citizenship regime and suggest ways to further develop Jane Jenson s notion of a citizenship regime as an analytical tool Research essays in this volume consider various social forces and dynamics such as neoliberalism inequality LGBTQ movements the rise of populism amid nationalist movements in multinational societies including Indigenous self determination claims and how they transform the politics of citizenship These collected contributions by former students collaborators and colleagues of Jenson highlight her lasting influence on the contemporary study of citizenship in Canada and elsewhere Contributors include Marcos Ancelovici UQ M James Bickerton St Francis Xavier University Maxime Boucher Universit de Montr al Neil Bradford Huron University College Alexandra Dobrowolsky Saint Mary s University Pascale Dufour Universit de Montreal Jane Jenson Universit de Montr al Rachel Laforest Queen s University Rianne Mahon Wilfrid Laurier University B reng re Marques Pereira Universit Libre de Bruxelles Martin Papillon Universit de Montr al Denis Saint Martin Universit de Montr al and Miram Smith York University
