was this film that led his career back into the consoles of the great American theater organs He toured extensively playing thousands of concerts of organ music during silent film showings He thus ushered in the silent film revival continuing the genre of live music performance accompanying film Erwin believing that cue sheets originally compiled for these films during the silent film era were full of the musical clichés of the 1920s composed new scores to over 100 silent films An American Organist in Paris presents Lee Orville Erwin's letters from France to his family in 1930 1931 In these letters Erwin recounts his daily experiences and encounters with some of the 20th century's greatest musicians and teachers He writes of his lessons with Marchal Verd and Boulanger and dinner parties with Olivier Messiaen Erwin's letters not only provide the singular experiences of a young musician but also reflect the common experiences shared by the multitude of American composers who studied in France during this time These letters are extensively footnoted to provide clarity and background information of the locations and personalities discussed A biographical chapter on Erwin which outlines his extensive musical career and impact on the silent film music revival in the 20th century is also included This book will serve as a unique glimpse into the life of one of America's most prolific composers for the theater organ Catalog of Copyright Entries
