More Lives Than One English Edition:

More Lives than One: A Biography of Hans Fallada Jenny Williams, 2012-02-02 Hans Fallada was a drug addict womanizer alcoholic jailbird and thief Yet he was also one of the most extraordinary storytellers of the twentieth century whose novels including Alone in Berlin portrayed ordinary people in terrible times with a powerful humanity This acclaimed biography newly revised and completely updated tells the remarkable story of Hans Fallada whose real name was Rudolf Ditzen Jenny Williams chronicles his turbulent life as a writer husband and father shadowed by mental torment and long periods in psychiatric care She shows how Ditzen's decision to remain in Nazi Germany in 1939 led to his self destruction but also made him a unique witness to his country's turmoil More Lives Than One unpicks the contradictory flawed and fascinating life of a writer who saw the worst of humanity yet maintained his belief in the decency of the little man A Practical Reader in

Contemporary Literary Theory Peter Brooker, Peter Widdowson, 2014-05-22 This introduction to practicing literary theory is a reader consisting of extracts from critical analyses largely by 20th century Anglo American literary critics set around major literary texts that undergraduate students are known to be familiar with It is specifically targeted to present literary criticism through practical examples of essays by literary theorists themselves on texts both within and outside the literary canon Four example essays are included for each author text presented

Ordinary Lives in the Early Caribbean Kristen Block, 2012 Kristen Block examines the entangled histories of Spain and England in the Caribbean during the long seventeenth century focusing on colonialism's two main goals the search for profit and the call to Christian dominance Using the stories of ordinary people Block illustrates how engaging with the powerful rhetoric and rituals of Christianity was central to survival Isobel Criolla was a runaway slave in Cartagena who successfully lobbied the Spanish governor not to return her to an abusive mistress Nicolas Burundel was a French Calvinist who served as henchman to the Spanish governor of Jamaica before his arrest by the Inquisition for heresy Henry Whistler was an English sailor sent to the Caribbean under Oliver Cromwell's plan for holy war against Catholic Spain Yaff and Nell were slaves who served a Quaker plantation owner Lewis Morris in Barbados Seen from their on the ground perspective the development of modern capitalism race and Christianity emerges as a story of negotiation contingency humanity and the quest for community Ordinary Lives in the Early Caribbean works in both a comparative and an integrative Atlantic world frame drawing on archival sources from Spain England Barbados Colombia and the United States It pushes the boundaries of how historians read silences in the archive asking difficult questions about how self censorship anxiety and shame have shaped the historical record The book also encourages readers to expand their concept of religious history beyond a focus on theology ideals and pious exemplars to examine the communal efforts of pirates smugglers slaves and adventurers who together shaped the Caribbean's emerging moral economy

Connecting Sociology to Our Lives Tim

Delaney, 2015-11-17 Many introductory texts claim to make sociology relevant to student interests Perhaps no other text has done this so completely and engagingly as Connecting Sociology to Our Lives Tim Delaney not only uses popular and contemporary culture examples he explains sociology thoroughly within the frame of the contemporary culture of students a culture shaped by political economic and environmental trends just as much as by today's pop stars This book will help academics to engage their students in sociology through the prism of their own culture It involves students in critical thinking and classroom discussion through the book's many What Do You Think inserts and will inspire them to careers with the book's unique chapter Sociology's Place in Society Completing the Connection Lives of Fort de Chartres David MacDonald, 2016-02-24 Fort de Chartres was a French fortification first built in 1720 on the east bank of the Mississippi River in present day Illinois it was used as an administrative center for the province Newcomers' Lives Peter Unwin, 2013-01-31 How the culture and life of the British people have been transformed by the contribution of immigrants in recent history Lives of Fair and Gallant Ladies Pierre de Bourdeille, seigneur de Brantôme, 2020-09-28 And now we find seated on the throne of France a young Monarch of a strange wild unattractive exterior His eye is pale colourless and shifty seeming to be void of all expression He trusts no man and has no real assurance of his power as Sovereign he looks long and suspiciously at those about him before speaking rarely bestows his confidence and believes himself constantly surrounded by spies Tis a nervous timid child tis Charles IX History treats him with an extreme severity and the St Bartholomew has thrown a lurid light over this unhappy Prince's figure He allowed the massacres on the fatal nights of the 24th and 25th of August and even shot down the flying Protestants from his palace roof Without going into the interminable discussions of historians as to this last alleged fact which is as strongly denied by some authorities as it is maintained by others I am not one of those who say hard things of Charles IX It is more a sentiment of pity I feel for him this monarch who loved Brant me and Marot and who protected Henri IV against Catherine de Medici I see him surrounded by brothers whom he had learned to distrust The Due d'Alençon is on the spot a legitimate object of detestation by reason of the subterranean intrigues he is forever hatching against his person while his other brother Henri afterwards Henri III Catherine's favourite son is in Poland kept sedulously informed of every variation in the Prince's always feeble health waiting impatiently for the hour when he must hurry back to France to secure the crown he covets Then his sister's vicious outbreaks are a source of constant pain and anxiety to him and last but not least there is his mother Catherine de Medici an incubus that crushed out his very life breath He cannot forget the tortures his brother Francis suffered from his mysterious malady and his premature death after a single year's reign Catherine hated Mary Stuart his young Queen whose only fault was to have exaggerated in herself all the frailties together with all the physical perfections of a woman and dreadful words had been whispered with bated breath about the Queen Mother An Italian deprived of all power while her husband lived insulted by a proud and beautiful favourite yet knowing herself well fitted for command she had brought up her children with ideas of respect and submission to her will they were never able to throw off The ill will she bore her daughter in law was the cause of all those accusations History has listened to over readily But Charles a nervous affectionate child whose natural impulses however had been chilled by his mother s influence and the indifference of his father Henri II was thrown back on himself and grew up timid suspicious and morose The frantic love of Francis for his fascinating Queen the cold dignity of Catherine in face of slights and cruel mortifications her bitter disappointment during her eldest son s reign her Italian origin held then even more than now to imply an implacable determination to avenge all injuries her indifference to the sudden and appalling death of the young King the insinuations of her enemies all combined to make a profound impression on Charles giving a furtive and if we may say so a haggard bent to his character Presently seated on the throne of France Huguenots and Catholics all about him exposed to the insults and pretensions of the Guise faction on the one hand and that of Coligny on the other dragged now this way now that between the two yet all the while instinctively drawn toward the Catholic side by ancestral faith and his mother s counsels no less than by reasons of state Charles signed the fatal order authorizing the Massacre of the Saint Bartholomew

Rural-Urban Migration in Vietnam Amy Y. C. Liu,Xin Meng,2019-06-04 This edited volume provides a comprehensive overview of rural urban migration in Vietnam It addresses a wide range of important topics including Vietnam s household registration system ho khau migration trends remittance behaviour and social networking In addition it examines migrants earnings their children s schooling housing issues and their families consumption behaviour in their destination cities The book is mainly based on new data from the Australian National University s Study of Rural Urban Migration in Vietnam with Insights from China and Indonesia VRUM project which identifies migrants from the large scale representative Vietnam Household Living Standards Survey 2012 VHLSS2012 In addition to the data from the VRUM project the book draws on other widely used data sources to provide a comprehensive picture of rural urban migrants in Vietnam By highlighting the issues and challenges brought about by the large scale rural urban migration in Vietnam the book helps researchers and policymakers more effectively formulate policies to respond to those challenges Moreover Vietnam s experience can serve as lessons learnt to other transitional developing countries The Romantic Lives of Emerging Adults Varda

Konstam,2019-01-21 The romantic lives of emerging adults are often baffling and contradictory While they prize committed and authentic relationships they appear to be reluctant participants They prefer to foster ambiguity in their romantic relationships even as they value honesty and clarity There is at once a valuing of long term as well as a decentering of romantic relationships Although our current understanding is incomplete this text grapples with these perplexing questions In attempting to understand emerging adults and their romantic lives researchers must consider the challenging economic conditions in which today s emerging adults find themselves With an emphasis on commitment and sacrifice and their centrality to one s readiness for a long term relationship this book reviews the main milestones in transitioning from an I identity to a we identity and discusses the concepts of choice and risk Further the book examines structures such as asymmetrically committed relationships cohabitation and marriage through the lens of commitment risk and risk avoidance

Probing extensively into the romantic lives of emerging adults their attitudes values and expectations this text examines some of the developmental and contextual realities against which romantic attachment must be viewed Critical topics such as casual and sexual experiences and relationships integration of work and love breakups marriage going solo and social media and its influences are considered The commonality and the individuality of the emerging adults presented throughout this text contribute to a rich understanding of emerging adults and how they live and love Shakespeare's Books Stuart Gillespie,2016-02-25 Shakespeare s Books contains nearly 200 entries covering the full range of literature Shakespeare was acquainted with including classical historical religious and contemporary works The dictionary covers works whose importance to Shakespeare has emerged more clearly in recent years due to new research as well as explaining current thinking on long recognized sources such as Plutarch Ovid Holinshed Ariosto and Montaigne Entries for all major sources include surveys of the writer s place in Shakespeare s time detailed discussion of their relation to his work and full bibliography These are enhanced by sample passages from early modern England writers together with reproductions of pages from the original texts Now available in paperback with a new preface bringing the book up to date this is an invaluable reference tool Postal Laws and Regulations of the United States of America United States,1924 Older Men's Lives Edward H. Thompson,Edward H. Thompson (Jr.),1994-06-07 In this multidisciplinary portrait of men and their concerns in later life the contributors use both a life course and gendered perspective to point out that the image and self image of men are continually reconstructed throughout the life cycle Issues examined include the position of older men in society and the changes wrought in their status and roles over time men s relationships to spouse children grandchildren and friends and policy implications The Mythology of Crime and Criminal Justice Victor E. Kappeler,Gary W. Potter,2017-07-18 The social construction of crime is often out of proportion to the threat posed The media and advocacy groups shine a spotlight on some crimes and ignore others Street crime is highlighted as putting everyone at risk of victimization while the greater social harms from corporate malfeasance receive far less attention Social arrangements dictate what is defined as crime and the punishments for those who engage in the proscribed behavior Interest groups promote their agendas by appealing to public fears Justifications often have no basis in fact but the public accepts the exaggerations and blames the targeted offenders The net widening effect of more laws and more punishment catches those least able to defend themselves This innovative alternative to traditional textbooks provides insightful observations of myths and trends in criminal justice Fourteen chapters challenge misconceptions about specific crimes or aspects of the criminal justice system Kappeler and Potter dissect popular images of crimes and criminals in a cogent compelling and engaging manner They trace the social construction of each issue and identify the misleading statistics and fears that form the basis of myths and the collateral damage of basing policies on mythical beliefs The authors encourage skepticism about commonly accepted beliefs offer readers a fresh perspective and urge them to analyze important issues from novel vantage points
