Moroccan Foreign Policy under Mohammed VI, 1999-2014 Irene Fernandez-Molina, 2015-10-23 This book presents a comprehensive survey of Moroccan foreign policy since 1999 It considers the objectives actors and decision making processes involved and outlines Morocco s foreign policy activity in key areas such as the international management of the Western Sahara conflict and relations with the other states of North Africa relations with the European Union especially France and Spain and relations with the United States and the Middle East The book links the behaviour and discourses analysed to differing conceptions of Morocco s national role on the international scene champion of national territorial integrity model student of the EU and good ally of the United States and shows how these competing approaches to the country s foreign policy enjoy different degrees of domestic consensus and result in different degrees of legitimation for the regime

Clifford Geertz in

Morocco Susan Slyomovics, 2013-09-13 Between 1963 and 1986 eminent American anthropologists Clifford and Hildred Geertz together and alone conducted ethnographic fieldwork for varying periods in Sefrou a town situated in north central Morocco south of Fez This book considers Geertz s contributions to sociocultural theory and symbolic anthropology Clifford Geertz made an immense impact on the American academy his interpretative and symbolic approaches reoriented anthropology analytically away from classic social science presuppositions while his publications profoundly influenced both North American and Maghribi researchers alike After his death at the age of 80 on October 30 2006 scholars from local national and international universities gathered at the University of California Los Angeles to analyze his contributions to sociocultural theory and symbolic anthropology in relation to Islam ideas of the sacred Morocco s cityscapes notably Sefrou s bazaar or suq colonialism and post independence economic development gender and political structures at the household and village levels This book looks back to a specific era of American anthropology beginning in the 1960s as it unfolded in Morocco and at the same time the contributions examine new lines of enquiry that opened up after key texts by Geertz were translated into French and introduced to generations of francophone Maghribi researchers who sustain lively and inventive meditations on his Morocco writings This book was published as a special issue of Journal of North African Studies

Global, Regional and Local Dimensions of Western Sahara's Protracted Decolonization Raquel

Ojeda-Garcia, Irene Fernández-Molina, Victoria Veguilla, 2016-11-30 This book explores the traces of the passage of time on the protracted and intractable conflict of Western Sahara The authors offer a multilevel analysis of recent developments from the global to the local scenes including the collapse of the architecture of the UN led conflict resolution process the advent of the War on Terror to the the Sahara Sahel area and the impact of the Arab Spring and growing regional security instability Special attention is devoted to changes in the Western Sahara territory annexed by Morocco and the Sahrawi refugee camps in Algeria Morocco has adapted its governance and public policies to profound socio demographic transformations in the territory under its control and has attempted to obtain international recognition for this annexation by proposing an Autonomy Plan The Polisario Front and Sahrawi nationalists have shifted their strategy and pushed the centre of gravity of the conflict back inwards by focusing on pro independence activism inside the disputed territory

Weaving Political Time in Morocco Béatrice Hibou, Mohamed Tozy, Katharine Throssell, 2025-05 Analyses of state power in Morocco have always been mired in exoticism or exceptionalism The Kingdom is said to be a prototype of political immobility a country caught in the authoritarian and conservative grip of its monarch known as the Commander of the Faithful a state in need of democratization but also a bastion of moderate Islam Drawing on thirty years of fieldwork interviews and extensive primary documentation Béatrice Hibou and Mohamed Tozy reveal how demographic political and cultural changes have transformed Morocco's government and modes of domination from its pre colonial past to the present Interrogating the ideas of Empire and Nation state as particular forms of rule they examine the legacy of the centuries long Sharifian Empire in relation to the contemporary neoliberal government They show how imperial traditions and the modern state co exist today in an intricate tapestry of seemingly contradictory power relations different understandings of legitimacy and competing visions of authority sovereignty and responsibility Drawing on the work of Max Weber and Michel Foucault Weaving Political Time in Morocco is a comprehensive comparative examination of the evolution and continuities of state power in this complex North African country

Multiculturalism and Minority Rights in the Arab World Will Kymlicka, Eva Pförtl, 2014-03-20 Since the Arab Spring Arab states have become the new front line in the struggle for democratization and for open societies As the experience of other regions has shown one of the most significant challenges facing democratization relates to minority rights This book explores how minority claims are framed and debated in the region and in particular how political actors draw upon re interpret or resist both the new global discourses of minority rights and more local traditions and practices of co existence The contributors examine a range of pre colonial colonial and post colonial factors that shape contemporary minority politics in the Arab world and that encumber the reception of international norms of multiculturalism These factors include the contested legacies of Islamic doctrines of the dhimmi and the Ottoman millet system colonial era divide and rule strategies and post colonial Arab nation building While these legacies complicate struggles for minority rights they do not entail an Arab exceptionalism to global trends to multiculturalism This volume explores a number of openings for new more pluralistic conceptions of nationhood and citizenship and suggests that minority politics at its best can serve as a vehicle for a more general transformative politics supporting a broader culture of democracy and human rights and challenging older authoritarian clientelistic or patriarchal political tendencies The chapters include both broad theoretical and historical perspectives as well as more focused case studies including Western Sahara Morocco Algeria Israel Palestine Sudan United Arab Emirates and Iraq

Sociological Insights of Great Thinkers Christofer R. Edling, Jens Rydgren, 2010-11-18 In this book leading sociologists expand the scope of their discipline by revealing the sociological aspects of the works of great philosophers scientists and writers Sociologists have long recognized that sociological insight can be gleaned from creative thinkers outside their formal discipline Sociological Insights of Great Thinkers Sociology through Literature Philosophy and Science captures and examines those insights in 32 essays that discuss scholars and writers not normally associated with any sociological school of thought Following a tradition of enriching the sociological toolkit by finding influence in philosophy and literature the volume's contributors an international group of renowned scholars eschew biography to focus solely on sociological interpretations that can be drawn from the work of many of history's preeminent thinkers Among the book's subjects are philosophers such as Aristotle Plato Kant and Cassirer scientists such as Darwin and Galileo and authors such as Kafka Proust and Shakespeare The essays not only allow readers to see such thinkers in a new light but underscore the fact that sociological questions have lain at the very heart of humanity throughout history

Essay on Islamization Mohamed Cherkaoui, 2019-10-29 Essay on Islamization is a study of the Islamization of all Muslim societies their conversion to orthodox Islam which with its chapels soldier monks and holy war leads to fundamentalism as well as to a moral puritanism Cherkaoui gauges the importance of this global phenomenon by analyzing the empirical data of some sixty Muslim and non Muslim societies He also conducts two ethnographic surveys to identify the metamorphoses of Muslim religious practices and their causes Among the dozen theories put forward to explain these planetary phenomena he cites those of secularization modernization the religious market the influence of the media and the policy of donors of unlimited financial resources social mobility geopolitical causes the emergence of fundamentalism and the role of proletarian intellectuals who promote Messianism and social pressure

Memories of the Maghreb Adolfo Campoy-Cubillo, 2012-10-22 Using a cultural studies approach this book explores how the Spanish colonization of North Africa continues to haunt Spain's efforts to articulate a national identity that can accommodate both the country's diversity brought about by immigration from its old colonies and the postnational demands of its integration in the European Union

Settlers in Contested Lands Oded Haklai, Neophytos Loizides, 2015-10-14 Settlers feature in many protracted territorial disputes and ethnic conflicts around the world Explaining the dynamics of the politics of settlers in contested territories in several contemporary cases this book illuminates how settler related conflicts emerge evolve and are significantly more difficult to resolve than other disputes Written by country experts chapters consider Israel and the West Bank Arab settlers in Kirkuk Moroccan settlers in Western Sahara settlers from Fascist Italy in North Africa Turkish settlers in Cyprus Indonesian settlers in East Timor and Sinhalese settlers in Sri Lanka Addressing four common topics right sizing the state mobilization and violence the framing process and legal principles versus pragmatism the cases taken together raise interrelated questions about the role of settlers in conflicts in contested territory Then looking beyond the similar characteristics these cases also illuminate key differences in levels of settler mobilization and the impact these differences can have on peace processes to help explain different outcomes of settler related conflicts Finally cases investigate the causes of settler mobilization and identify relevant conflict resolution mechanisms

Journal of Peace Research, 2008-03

Die Marokko-Deutschen 1873-1918 Gunther Mai, 2014-10-22 This is a study of the life and culture of a small group of Moroccan Germans and how they attempted to exert political influence At the end of the 19th century some 40 German merchants and diplomats were living with their families in Morocco Around the turn of the century these Moroccan Germans attempted to gain influence on the inner workings of Morocco and on the German government to prevent Morocco from coming under a French protectorate Their goal was to have part of the country be declared a German colony This study also illuminates the struggle of the Moroccan Germans to receive compensation for confiscations they suffered in the aftermath of 1918 and the many difficulties they experienced trying to gain footing during the German Reich
