Leurs productions narratives variées mettent en discussion les termes de féminismes et de sororités dans des contextes culturels et politiques divers. Notre livre se propose d'explorer les différents aspects de la solidarité féminine et du féminisme des combats individuels et communs des femmes et de leur affirmation sociale travers les époques et les divers continents. Le livre est conçu comme une approche diachronique interdisciplinaire et intergénérationnelle la thématique des féminismes contemporains vus travers les liens de sororité et de solidarité féminine ou bien de leur manque au long des siècles et dans les différentes aires de la francophonie. Les angles théoriques sont divers théories de genre théories raciales théories sociocritiques théories anthropologiques Girlhood Studies et Cultural Studies entre autres. For decades now writers filmmakers artists and others have been interested in the feminine issue in their artistic works. Their narratives bring to the light terms such as feminisms and sororities in diverse political and cultural contexts. Our book aims to explore different aspects of feminism and solidarity of female individual and group struggles and of their social affirmation through the centuries and on different continents. The volume follows a diachronic interdisciplinary and intergenerational approach on the topic of contemporary feminisms seen through the lens of feminine sororal and solidarity links or through their lack of during centuries and in different Francophone geographies. A diverse theoretical approach is present in the volume from gender theories racial theories socio critical and anthropological theories to Girlhood Studies and Cultural Studies among others 1.-2.
