Places of Invention Arthur P. Molella, Anna Karvellas, 2015-09-15 The companion book to an upcoming museum exhibition of the same name Places of Invention seeks to answer timely questions about the nature of invention and innovation What is it about some places that sparks invention and innovation Is it simply being at the right place at the right time or is it more than that How does place whether physical social or cultural support constrain and shape innovation Why does invention flourish in one spot but struggle in another even very similar location In short Why there Why then Places of Invention frames current and historic conversation on the relationship between place and creativity citing extensive scholarship in the area and two decades of investigation and study from the National Museum of American History s Lemelson Center for the Study of Invention and Innovation The book is built around six place case studies Hartford CT late 1800s Hollywood CA 1930s Medical Alley MN 1950s Bronx NY 1970s Silicon Valley CA 1970s 1980s and Fort Collins CO 2010s Interspersed with these case studies are dispatches from three learning labs detailing Smithsonian Affiliate museums work using Places of Invention as a model for documenting local invention and innovation Written by exhibition curators each part of the book focuses on the central thesis that invention is everywhere and fueled by unique combinations of creative people ready resources and inspiring surroundings Like the locations it explores Places of Invention shows how the history of invention can be a transformative lens for understanding local history and cultivating creativity on scales of place ranging from the personal to the national and beyond

History and Material Culture Karen Harvey, 2017-09-18 Sources are the raw material of History but whereas the written word has traditionally been seen as the principal source historians now recognize the value of sources beyond text In this new edition of History and Material Culture contributors consider a range of objects from an eighteenth century bed curtain to a twenty first century shopping trolley which can help historians develop new interpretations and new knowledge about the past Containing two new chapters on healing objects in East Africa and the shopping trolley in the social world this book examines a variety of material sources from around the globe and across centuries to assess how such sources can be used to study the distant and the recent past In a revised introduction Karen Harvey discusses some of the principal issues raised when historians use material culture particularly in the context of the material turn and suggests some initial steps for those unfamiliar with these kinds of sources While the sources are discussed from interdisciplinary perspectives the emphasis of the book is on what historians stand to gain from using material culture as well as what historians have to offer the broader study of material culture Clearly written and accessible this book is the ideal introduction to the opportunities and challenges of researching material culture and is essential reading for all students of historical theory and method Modernist Fraud Leonard Diepeveen, 2019-02-05 Focusing on literature and visual art in the years 1910-1935 Modernist Fraud begins with the omnipresent accusations that modernism was not art at all but rather an effort to pass off patently absurd works as great art These assertions common in the time's journalism are used to understand the aesthetic and context which spawned them and to look at what followed in their wake Fraud discourse ventured into the aesthetic theory of the time to ideas of artistic sincerity formalism and the intentional fallacy In doing so it profoundly shaped the modern canon and its justifying principles Modernist Fraud explores a wide range of materials It draws on reviews and newspaper accounts of art scandals such as the 1913 Armory Show the 1910 and 1912

Postimpressionist shows and Tender Buttons to daily syndicated columns to parodies and doggerel to actual hoaxes such as Spectra and Disumbrationism to the literary criticism of Edith Sitwell to the trial of Brancusi's Bird in Space and to the contents of the magazine Blind Man including a defense of Duchamp's Fountain a poem by Bill Brown and the works of and an interview with the bafflingly unstable painter Louis Eilshemius In turning to these materials the book reevaluates how modernism interacted with the public and describes how a new aesthetic begins not as a triumphant explosion that initiates irrevocable changes but as an uncertain muddling and struggle with ideology Handbook of Qualitative Research
