Catalogue of the Library of Congress Library of Congress,1864 Maternal and Perinatal Health in Developing Countries Julia Hussein,Affette McCaw-Binns,Roger Webber,2012 The promotion of maternal health and mortality reduction is of worldwide importance and constitute a vital part of the UN Millennium Development Goals The highest maternal mortality rates are in developing countries where global and regional initiatives are needed to improve the systems and practices involved in maternal care and medical access Taking a practical policy approach this book covers the background and concepts underlying efforts to improve maternal and perinatal mortality the current global situation and problems that prevent progress It includes case studies and examples of successful strategies recommends good practices and provides a critical analysis of knowledge gaps to inform areas for future research Science Bulletin South Africa. Department of Agricultural Technical Services,1971 The Mammals of the Southern African Sub-region J. D. Skinner,Christian T. Chimimba,2005-11-15 This third extensively revised edition of The Mammals of the Southern African Subregion contains detailed descriptions of all mammals that occur naturally on the African mainland south of the Cunene and Zambezi rivers together with all mammals indigenous to the subregion s coastal waters The rapid accumulation of new information resulting from mammal research in southern Africa together with radical taxonomic changes across all levels of mammalian classification have necessitated this new edition which presents the best and latest data accurately in one comprehensive volume for use not only by scientists but also by an increasingly wide audience of general readers with an interest in the natural history of southern Africa J D Skinner and C T Chimimba have revised expanded and updated the text in a major project overseen by an editorial committee constituted by the Mammal Research Institute at the University of Pretoria Specialists on each mammalian order have served as subeditors and a range of independent and internationally recognised authorities have reviewed every species description In this edition all the distribution maps and many of the illustrations of mammal prints have been updated and redrawn several new colour plates have been added and the whole design of this definitive reference work has been enhanced to ensure easy access to information BOOK JACKET Black Britain and

Nelson Mandela Elizabeth Williams, 2024-11-14 In Black Britain and Nelson Mandela Pulling the Branch of a Tree Elizabeth Williams leads a cast of renowned scholars to explore the impact of Nelson Mandela's legacy on Black intellectual thought on race and social justice in Britain. This engaging book presents an original collection of chapters authored by leading Black voices across the academy foregrounding the Black British perspective in historical discourse for the first time. This fresh take on Mandela the Man rather than the enduring myth around his branding explores the life of Nelson Mandela his contribution to the peace in South Africa and the impact of British law on Mandela and his legal jurisprudence. Not only does this innovative collection highlight the lessons which can be learned from Mandela's life it also connects with contemporary issues of race in Britain today taking in the Rhodes Must Fall movement and Black Lives Matter movement. The result is a much needed revival of existing literature and a collection which will be of interest to students and scholars of Black British History. Selected Water Resources Abstracts, 1988 The Nation and Athenaeum, 1922 Engineering, 1890
