Man and Superman/Arms and the Man (Great Plays Series) Large Print George Bernard Shaw,2013-07-14 I warn you that if you attempt to repudiate your responsibility I shall suspect you of finding the play too decorous for your taste The fifteen years have made me older and graver In you I can detect no such becoming change Your levities and audacities are like the loves and comforts prayed for by Desdemona they increase even as your days do grow No mere pioneering journal dares meddle with them now the stately Times itself is alone sufficiently above suspicion to act as your chaperone and even the Times must sometimes thank its stars that new plays are not produced every day since after each such event its gravity is compromised its platitude turned to epigram its portentousness to wit its propriety to elegance and even its decorum into naughtiness by criticisms which the traditions of the paper do not allow you to sign at the end but which you take care to sign with the most extravagant flourishes between the lines I am not sure that this is not a portent of Revolution In eighteenth century France the end was at hand when men bought the Encyclopedia and found Diderot there When I buy the Times and find you there my prophetic ear catches a rattle of twentieth century tumbrils
