

APSHAI'S LEGACY

"You have a destiny to fulfill!", the unseen voice whispered from out of the darkness.

My teeth chattered, my body shook. In the flickering firelight I could barely see the outstretched claw and bony finger, pointing directly at me. By Geb's beard, was I scared!

It happened so fast. Suddenly, just at dusk this evening, those four huge brutes pounded on our cottage door. Their leader demanded my name. When I answered, he commanded, "Come, Merlis wants to see you—NOW!"

Before I could step back or say anything, the other three had grabbed me and were dragging me out the door. Behind me, my widowed mother gasped, then cried: "Oh—NO, THEY'VE FINALLY COME!"

I looked back, as I was rudely thrust on the back of a gigantic stallion. My poor mother stood in the doorway, her dear face wet with tears, her right hand reaching out—as if her hand could somehow stop them from taking away her only child.

There was a slap on my mount's flank. The beast leaped forward. I clung to the stallion's mane for my dear life. Away we galloped, into the twilight. We rode hour after hour, down strange roads and through dark forests. Finally, we rushed up a mountain trail and stopped. To our right a dim light glowed from the rocks. I was pulled off the horse.

"Go youngster, Merlis waits for you inside the cave."

Frightened and trembling, now I stood in the center of a huge cavern. Behind me three ugly witches, shrouded in black, cackled and danced around a giant cauldron, bubbling over a weird fire. Lying on animal skins, in front of me, was a very old man in roughspun priest's robes.

The robe's hood hid his face. I could only see two glowing embers where his eyes should be. His extended right arm shook, as if being held up with great effort.

"Youngster, know ye of the disaster on our land...how our crops wither...our flocks dwindle...our cities are dying?"

I nodded.

"know ye how it is written, that only when we rediscover and reclaim the mighty Temple of Apshai will our people once again prosper?"

I nodded again.

He continued, "Many, many of our bravest have entered the dungeons to search for our lost treasures...to destroy the evil monsters that now inhabit the mazes...to disarm the perilous traps hidden along the passages..."

His arm shook even more violently, "But sadly...all too sadly, none of them have ever returned."

He paused to let me absorb his words, then continued: "And do ye know that it is also written, that only the blood of Apshai's greatest warrior will ever be able to reclaim the Temple of Apshai...and get the curse off our land?"

I knew who the old man meant. Often my companions and I had discussed his fabled exploits.
