Bioethics at the Movies Sandra Shapshay, 2009-01-28 D Thomas R Cole University of Texas Health Science Center at Houston Metapsychology Genetic Information Alison K. Thompson, Ruth F. Chadwick, 2007-07-23 It is difficult to think of an example of an advancement in the biological sciences that has had an impact on society similar to that of the new genetics Recent developments in biotechnology have occasioned much discussion among academics professionals and lay people alike In particular many questions and concerns have arisen over the acquisition access and control of genetic information There are several reasons why the new genetics has commanded such widespread attention and why it is now the subject of considerable debate Special reference is given in this volume to the implications of genetic information for five different subject areas eugenics the insurance industry the commercialisation of genetic testing strategies for raising public awareness and the value of theological ethical and sociological frameworks in the debate This diverse collection of papers attempts to address and critically discuss issues surrounding the control of and access to genetic information from ethical medical legal and theoretical points of view The first and shortest section of the book attempts to address concerns over the eugenic potential of new biotechnologies It also provides a historical context for the debate for controversy over the subject of eugenics predates the current debate over genetic information by a considerable length of time Indeed by the time the first patent was is sued for Chakrabarty s strain of oil eating bacteria in the early 1970s the term eugenics had already acquired strong pejorative connotations

Ending Life Margaret Pabst Battin,2005-05-05 Margaret Pabst Battin has established a reputation as one of the top philosophers working in bioethics today This work is a sequel to Battin s 1994 volume The Least Worst Death The last ten years have seen fast moving developments in end of life issues from the legalization of physician assisted suicide in Oregon and the Netherlands to furor over proposed restrictions of scheduled drugs used for causing death and the development of NuTech methods of assistance in dying Battin s new collection covers a remarkably wide range of end of life topics including suicide prevention AIDS suicide bombing serpent handling and other religious practices that pose a risk of death genetic prognostication suicide in old age global justice and the duty to die and suicide physician assisted suicide and euthanasia in both American and international contexts As with the earlier volume these new essays are theoretically adroit but draw richly from historical sources fictional techniques and ample factual material
