

Reflective Essay

Introduction

My development since 2013, the beginning of my university career, has been sizeable not only in physical and mental ability, but also in cognitive shifts, career development, skills acquirement (physical, academic, interpersonal and intra-personal) and subject knowledge. Personally I feel I have improved mostly in my personal development, as I started uni with a good foundation of knowledge that I have since built on. The contacts and connections I have formed over the past few years have been invaluable to me and the network I have created will be equally valuable for future employment. This essay will highlight in more detail my personal and professional development, and what issues I feel might affect my future career prospects.

Professional

I've always been a physically able person and I've always loved the challenge of physical activity. Since I was young I've been an avid climber of all things, mostly trees until I was a little older and I discovered rock climbing. I had acquired my three star kayak qualification (BCU, 2011) by the age of 15, the motivation being a two week trip kayaking down the Kali River in North India. There are many other outdoor experiences I had the opportunity to take part in whilst I was young, for example, a four day trip canoeing in Sweden and acquiring a high rank in both the army and navy sections of the CCF (Combined Cadet Force) in my secondary school Mill Hill Foundation (Mill Hill School Foundation, 2012).

During the summer of 2012, once I had finished sixth form, I worked at GoApe! (a high wire course) (Adventure Forest Ltd, 2015) and was climbing two to three times a week indoors. I then spent my gap year working in an outdoor centre in North Devon called Yenworthy Lodge (Yenworthy Lodge, no date), where I had my first outdoor climbing experience. I completed my BASI 2 (British Association of Snowsports Instructors) (BASI, no date) snowboard coaching qualification in Switzerland, and completed a 3 month solo walk from Lands End to John O'Groats for charity (raised £3000) (Greaves, 2013). Based on these adventures, it is clear that I have a passion for the outdoors and therefore plenty of outdoor experience before I came to university, even if at the time I was putting all my efforts into being a professional musician.

During the first year of university I had the opportunity to explore lots of different outdoor sports that I hadn't done before, so I could decide from an informed point which ones I wanted to specialise in. Caving and bushcraft became prevalent sports and are probably now my most favoured, whereas climbing and kayaking (the sports I had most previous experience in) surprisingly took a back seat. I have completed my cave leader training for both Level 1 and Level 2 (Evans, 2015), and I'm looking towards achieving the assessments this year. Caving is something I was always curious about, and to move through the sport from beginner, to advanced, to being able to facilitate other peoples caving experiences, has been a great source of joy for me.

I've also completed the training for my practitioners qualification for bushcraft (Institute for Outdoor Learning, 2015). Like caving, I've always had an interest in the natural world, however with bushcraft I've had lots of previous experiences where I've used bushcraft skills, even though I perhaps wasn't aware of it at the time. Having a bushcraft skill and being aware of all the deeper intricacies of the skill are very different, and I feel that I now have a deeper understanding of many bushcraft skills. Not only do I feel that I can complete a bushcraft related task but I am confident I would be able to pass those skills on to others.

Although climbing has not been a huge focus for me over the past three years, my skill set has still progressed. I have completed my SPA (Single Pitch Award) training with the hopes of completing

Reflections on Security in the Third Millennium Glen Segell, 2000 Reflections on the Cuban Missile Crisis Raymond Garthoff, 2011-03-01 The Soviet response to the first edition of Reflections has been a prime example of the new openness under glasnost in discussing previously taboo subjects Using new revelations such as the fact that Moscow had twice as many troops in Cuba as the Kennedy administration believed from key Soviet and Cuban Sources Garthoff has revised his earlier analysis to produce the most accurate eye opening story yet of the 1963 crisis In this book Raymond L Garthoff a participant in the crisis deliberations of the U S government reflects on the nature of the crisis its consequences and its lessons for the future He provides a unique combination of memoir historical analysis and political interpretations He gives particular attention to the aftermath and afterlife of the crisis and to its bearing on current and future policy In the first edition of the book in 1987 the Garthoff presented a number of facts for the first time Since then more information has become available particularly from Soviet sources in part from conferences in which Garthoff participated but even more from individual interviews and research This new information much of it presented here in this volume for the first time helps to fill in gaps in our knowledge about events and motivations on the Soviet side More importantly it enlarges our understanding of the crisis interaction

Reflections on Native-newcomer Relations James Rodger Miller, 2004-01-01 The twelve essays that make up Reflections on Native Newcomer Relations illustrate the development in thought by one of Canada's leading scholars in the field of Native history J R Miller The collection comprising pieces that were written over a period spanning nearly two decades deals with the evolution of historical writing on First Nations and its methodological issues in the writing of Native newcomer history policy matters including residential schools and linkages between the study of Native newcomer relations and academic governance and curricular matters Half of the essays appear here in print for the first time and all use archival published and oral history evidence to throw light on Native Newcomer relations Miller argues that the nature of the relationship between Native peoples and newcomers in Canada has varied over time based on the reasons the two parties have had for interacting The relationship deteriorates into attempts to control and coerce Natives during periods in which newcomers do not perceive them as directly useful and it improves when the two parties have positive reasons for cooperation Reflections on Native Newcomer Relations opens up for discussion a series of issues in Native newcomer history It addresses all the trends in the discipline of the past two decades and never shies from showing their contradictions as well as those in the author's own thinking as he matured as a scholar

Transforming Knowledge in International Relations Erzsebet Strausz, 2018-03-19 This book emerges from within the everyday knowledge practices of International Relations IR scholarship and explores the potential of experimental writing as an alternative source of knowledge and political imagination within the modern university and the contemporary structures of neoliberal government. It unlocks and foregrounds the power of writing as a site of resistance and a vehicle of transformation that is fundamentally grounded in reflexivity, self-crafting and an ethos of care. In an attempt to cultivate new sensibilities to habitual academic practice the project re-appropriates the skill of writing for envisioning and enacting what it might mean to be working in the discipline of IR and inhabiting the usual spaces and scenes of academic life differently. The practice of experimental writing that intuitively unfolds and develops in the book makes an important methodological intervention into conventional social scientific inquiry both regarding the politics of writing and knowledge production as well as the role and position of the researcher. The formal innovations of the book include the actualization and creative remaking of the Foucaultian genre of the experience book which seeks to challenge scholarly routine and offers new experiences and modes of perception as to what it might mean to know and to be a knowing subject in our times. The book will be of interest to researchers engaged in critical and creative research methods particularly narrative writing, autobiography, storytelling, experimental and transformational research, Foucault studies and philosophy as well as critical approaches to contemporary government and studies of resistance Lunar Surface Studies, 1962 Critical Reflections on Public Private Partnerships Jasmine Gideon, Elaine Unterhalter, 2020-12-21 This book argues that despite the hype within many policy circles there is actually very little evidence to support the presumed benefits of Public Private Partnerships (PPPs) in reducing poverty and addressing inequalities in the provision of and access to public services. Taking a cross-sectoral comparative approach this book investigates how PPPs have played out in practice and what the implications have been for inequalities. Drawing on a range of empirical case studies in education, healthcare, housing and water, the book picks apart the roles of PPPs as financing mechanisms in several international and national contexts and considers the similarities and differences between sectors. The global COVID-19 pandemic has raised significant questions about the future of social provision and through its analysis of the emergence and expansion of the role of PPPs the book also makes a vital contribution to current discussion over this rapidly changing landscape Overall this wide ranging guide to understanding and evaluating the role of PPPs in the Global South will be useful to researchers within development international relations economics and related fields as well as to policy makers and practitioners working in development related policy

A Sanctuary in Our Midst: Christmas Reflections on Jesus Karen L. Straszheim,2019-11-12 Amidst the checklists and social engagements for the Christmas season Karen Straszheim writes for the weary Christian who gets lost in the holiday madness By placing a strong emphasis on spiritual rest Straszheim s Christmas devotional is divided into eleven chapters that collectively call for the Christian to put their shopping bags down and just rest in the Scriptures A Sanctuary in Our Midst Christmas Reflections on Jesus is deeply enriched with Scripture references throughout to exemplify how the Old and New Testament compliment each other and how we can understand the Bible A Sanctuary in Our Midst is perfect for studying within a group or individually to talk through Straszheim s discussion questions altogether over hot cocoa or to quietly reflect in one s own time Either way this devotional is a sanctuary in and of itself Endorsements Karen Straszheim s A Sanctuary in Our Midst will help you prepare for the Christmas season She presents the Scriptures in a way that both refreshes the believer in Jesus and answers many questions of those who are seeking the true meaning of Christmas Karen helps the reader understand the importance of preparing the heart for Christmas It is refreshing in application and focuses upon God s Word Most of all A Sanctuary in Our Midst will help you see Believing in Jesus is different than being religious Pastor Earl Korhonen World Missions Director Association of Free Lutheran Congregations When I was young I fondly remember the church we attended did something that made quite an impression on me Each year after Christmas they removed the lights decorations and all the branches from the beautiful large tree that stood in the front At Easter time the trunk from that same Christmas tree became the symbol for the Cross of Christ s Crucifixion When Christmas came each year I began to anticipate this transformation looking not just at the outward beauty but past the branches to the very center of the tree The author has done the same thing in this devotional The daily readings and questions point to the incredible connection between Christmas and Easter making the Gospel of Christ the very heart of it all It is a wonderful way to anticipate the holidays Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift 2 Cor 9 15

 Jennifer Voss White Student of the Word Servant of Christ Women s Ministry Leader Looking for ways to better prepare your heart for the coming of Christ This devotional is full of inspiration Karen does an excellent job of using Scripture to lead the reader through prophecies and their fulfillment Everyday testimonies help to apply these truths to our lives today Jan McDermott Retired Bible Camp Director Riverside Lutheran Bible Camp Story City Iowa Karen Straszheim s use of Scripture is an essential point in the Gospel Jesus nativity is the fulfillment of our prophesied Messiah Karen leads the student to a deep understanding of the Advent message and restores the real message of Christmas I wish the reader could see her in action when leading non believers to the centrality of the Scripture the preeminence of Jesus as our sin bearer and hear the loving care in her voice Karen is a true and competent evangelist intelligent gentle and forthright I hope you will experience her evangelical gift here in her devotional Curt Mobley Teacher of English at the Evangelical Theological Seminary of Prague Czech Republic and Missionary with ReachGlobal Every City Shall Be Forsaken' Lester L. Grabbe,Robert D. Haak,2001-10-01 Urbanism in ancient society has now become an important topic for both classical and ancient Near Eastern scholars Equally the question of prophecy as social institution and literary corpus has been increasingly problematized The essays in this volume bring together these crucial aspects of modern biblical research the scope ranging from methodological issues about sociology and urbanism to Assyrian prophecies and specific biblical texts An introductory chapter surveys recent anthropological study on urbanism summarizes the essays and places the different contributions in context Modeling and Simulation ,1990 Selected Essays, Volume I Andrew Louth,2023 These two volumes contain selected essays written over forty years by Andrew Louth a major scholar in the fields of Theology and Patristics early Christian thought The essays in the first volume concern key figures and themes in early Christian theology especially Maximos the Confessor and John of Damascus Realism and Institutionalism in International Studies Michael Brecher, Frank P. Harvey,2009-12-11 Realism and Institutionalism in International Studies represents a unique collection of original essays by foremost scholars in the field of International Studies Six essays advocate critique or revise Realism the theoretical paradigm that explains international politics by emphasizing security competition and war among states The remaining four essays address Institutionalism the paradigm that offers explanations for the formation maintenance variation and significance of international institutions The authors reflect on the strengths and weaknesses of these approaches and suggest research agendas for the future Together this volume provides an accessible and wide ranging survey of the issues concerning two major paradigms in International Studies This volume will be of interest to scholars and students alike and will undoubtedly determine the shape of future research The Reporter [afterw.] The Catechumen reporter.
