Tally,2018-11-09 What is our place in the world and how do we inhabit understand and represent this place to others Topophrenia gathers essays by Robert Tally that explore the relationship between space place and mapping on the one hand and literary criticism history and theory on the other The book provides an introduction to spatial literary studies exploring in detail the theory and practice of geocriticism literary cartography and the spatial humanities more generally The spatial anxiety of disorientation and the need to know one s location even if only subconsciously is a deeply felt and shared human experience Building on Yi Fu Tuan s topophilia or love of place Tally instead considers the notion of topophrenia as a simultaneous sense of place consciousness coupled with a feeling of disorder anxiety and dis ease He argues that no effective geography could be complete without also incorporating an awareness of the lonely loathsome or frightening spaces that condition our understanding of that space Tally considers the tension between the objective ordering of a space and the subjective ways in which narrative worlds are constructed Narrative maps present a way of understanding that seems realistic but is completely figurative So how can these maps be used to not only understand the real world but also to put up an alternative vision of what that world might otherwise be From Tolkien to Cervantes Borges to More Topophilia provides a clear and compelling explanation of how geocriticism the spatial humanities and literary cartography help us to narrate represent and understand our place in a constantly changing world James Joyce's Finnegans Wake John Harty, III, 2015-12-22 First published in 1991 James Joyce's Finnegans Wake A Case Book was published in order to celebrate the 50th anniversary of Joyce's final work with 14 critical essays and a page by page outline of the novel The book includes critical approaches and interpretations in film drama and music This title will be of interest to students of literature Perplexing Plots David Bordwell, 2023-01-17 Nominated 2024 Edgar Allan Poe Award in the category of best critical biographical Mystery Writers of America Shortlisted 2024 Agatha Awards Best Mystery Nonfiction Malice Domestic Posthumous Winner 2023 IFCA Book Prize International Crime Fiction Association Narrative innovation is typically seen as the domain of the avant garde However techniques such as nonlinear timelines multiple points of view and unreliable narration have long been part of American popular culture How did forms and styles once regarded as difficult become familiar to audiences In Perplexing Plots David Bordwell reveals how crime fiction plays and films made unconventional narrative mainstream He shows that since the nineteenth century detective stories and suspense thrillers have allowed ambitious storytellers to experiment with narrative Tales of crime and mystery became a training ground where audiences learned to appreciate artifice These genres demand a sophisticated awareness of storytelling conventions they play games with narrative form and toy with audience expectations Bordwell examines how writers and directors have pushed pulled and collaborated with their audiences to change popular storytelling He explores the plot engineering of figures such as Raymond Chandler Agatha Christie Dashiell Hammett Patricia Highsmith Alfred Hitchcock Dorothy Sayers and Quentin Tarantino and traces how mainstream storytellers and modernist experimenters influenced one another's work A sweeping kaleidoscopic account written in a lively conversational style Perplexing Plots offers an ambitious new understanding of how movies literature theater and popular culture have evolved over the past century Writing Short Stories Ailsa Cox, 2025-03-04 The third edition of Writing Short Stories has been revised and updated to provide a complete guide to the craft of writing short stories It emphasizes the importance of voice as a foundation for work on characterization imagery dialogue and pace as readers move from their first sketches to working on more complex narrative structures Ailsa Cox guides readers through key aspects of the craft providing a variety of case studies of classic and contemporary core texts The wide range of writers discussed includes Edgar Allan Poe Katherine Mansfield Angela Carter Alice Munro Ali Smith Iphigenia Baal Octavia E Butler and William Gibson The diversity and flexibility of the short story genre is highlighted throughout along with the specific challenges the writer faces The book considers a range of genres such as fantasy science

Joycean Cultures, Culturing Joyces Vincent John Cheng, Kimberly J. Devlin, Margot Norris, 1998 This volume presents a cultural criticism that analyzes the politics art fashion and constructions of the body inscribed and transcribed in the Joycean text The essays illustrate the dynamic interaction of art culture and criticism They simultaneously explore the impact that Joyce's own culture both high and low had on his art while assessing Joyce's reciprocal influence on our own contemporary culture Following the paths of a long and pluralistic tradition of Joyce criticism the new methodologies in this volume create or culture a new Joyce for the nineties

Make It New Kurt Heinzelman, 2003 What was Modernism and why does it still matter The term itself first gained currency in the 1930s describing a kind of art that already may have peaked some would say as early as 1922 Whatever its ups and downs in its own time as the novelist Julian Barnes claims in one of the twenty essays commissioned for the present volume Modernism never vanished It remains our immovable feast Modernism was international in scope it left its mark on all genres from literature and painting to opera dance and architecture it pushed the boundaries of what was artistically possible and aesthetically important and finally for all its destructive urges which it shared with the century itself it was also celebrative This book is a response to the exhibition of the same name that opened at the Harry Ransom Center in October 2003 It includes original essays by such noted writers and artists as Russell Banks Anita Desai David Douglas Duncan Elizabeth Hardwick and Penelope Lively which offer fresh perspectives on important Modernist figures including William Gaddis Ezra Pound William Faulkner E M Forster Paul Robeson Virginia Woolf Henry James Joseph Conrad Frank Lloyd Wright and Le Corbusier In addition essays by leading scholars in literature and art history focus on specific artifacts included in the exhibit As the Center's Director Thomas F Staley puts it in the Foreword Ours is an attempt not of definition but of discovery and rediscovery Book and exhibition permit both reader and viewer to experience the textures structures and resonances which made the first part of the twentieth century so innovative that its art is still virtually synonymous with what newness means      Modernist Fiction and Vagueness Megan Quigley, 2015-02-02 Modernist Fiction and Vagueness marries the artistic and philosophical versions of vagueness linking the development of literary modernism to changes in philosophy This book argues that the problem of vagueness language s unavoidable imprecision led to transformations in both fiction and philosophy in the early twentieth century Both twentieth century philosophers and their literary counterparts including James Eliot Woolf and Joyce were fascinated by the vagueness of words and the dream of creating a perfectly precise language Building on recent interest in the connections between analytic philosophy pragmatism and modern literature Modernist Fiction and Vagueness demonstrates that vagueness should be read not as an artistic problem but as a defining quality of modernist fiction      Reading Faulkner Richard Marius, 2006 Soldiers pay Mosquitoes Flags in the dust Faulkner and Blacks The sound and the fury As I lay dying Sanctuary Light in August Pylon Absalom Absalom The unvanquished The wild palms The hamlet Faulkner and the mythological world Go down Moses      Joyce's Audiences, 2016-08-09 This book presents for the first time a collective examination of the issue of audience in relation to Joyce s work and the cultural moments of its reception While many of the essays gathered in this volume are concerned with particular readers and readings of Joyce s work they all individually and generally gesture at something broader than a specific act of reception Joyce s Audiences is an important narrative of the cultural receptions of Joyce but it is also an exploration of the author s own fascination with audiences reflecting a wider concern with reading and interpretation in general Twelve essays by an international cast of Joyce critics deal with the censorship and promotion of Ulysses the plain reader in modernism Richard Ellmann s influence on Joyce s reputation the implied audiences of Stephen Hero and Portrait Borges s relation with Joyce the study of Joyce in Taiwan the promotion of Joyce in the U S the complaint that there is insufficient time to read Joyce s work the revisions to Work in Progress that respond to specific reviews strategies of critical interpretation Joyce and feminism and the belated readings of post structuralism      The Cambridge Introduction to Modernism Pericles Lewis, 2007-05-03 Publisher description      The Musicalization of Fiction Werner Wolf, 2023-12-11 This volume is a pioneering study in the theory and history of the imitation of music in fiction and constitutes an important contribution to current intermediality research Starting with a comparison of basic similarities and differences between literature and music the study goes on to provide outlines of a general theory of intermediality and its fundamental forms in which a more specialized theory of the musicalization of narrative literature based on contemporary narratology and a typology of the forms of musico literary intermediality are embedded It also addresses the question of how to recognize a musicalized fiction when reading one and why Sterne s Tristram Shandy contrary to what has been previously said is not to be regarded as a musicalized fiction In its historical part the study explores forms and functions of experiments with the musicalization of fiction in English literature After a survey of the major preconditions for musicalization the increasing appreciation of music in 18th and 19th century aesthetics and its main causes exemplary fictional texts from romanticism to postmodernism are analyzed Authors interpreted are De Quincey Joyce Woolf A Huxley Beckett Burgess and Josipovici Whilst the limitations of a transposition of music into fiction remain apparent experiments in this field yield valuable insights into mainly a mimetic and formalist aesthetic tendencies in the development of more recent fiction as a whole and also show to what extent traditional conceptions of music continue to influence the use of this medium in literature The volume is of relevance for students and scholars of English comparative and general literature as well as for readers who take an interest in intermediality or interart research
