The Color of Love Elizabeth Hordge-Freeman, 2015-10-30 Winner, Section on the Sociology of Emotions Outstanding Recent Contribution Book Award, American Sociological Association 2016 Charles Horton Cooley Award for Recent Book, Society for the Study of Symbolic Interaction 2017 Best Publication Award, Section on Body and Embodiment, American Sociological Association (ASA) 2018. The Color of Love reveals the power of racial hierarchies to infiltrate our most intimate relationships. Delving far deeper than previous sociologists have into the black Brazilian experience, Elizabeth Hordge Freeman examines the relationship between racialization and the emotional life of a family. Based on interviews and a sixteen-month ethnography of ten working-class Brazilian families, this provocative work sheds light on how families simultaneously resist and reproduce racial hierarchies. Examining race and gender, Hordge Freeman illustrates the privileges of whiteness by revealing how those with blacker features often experience material and emotional hardships. From parental ties to sibling interactions to extended family and romantic relationships, the chapters chart new territory by revealing the connection between proximity to whiteness and the distribution of affection within families. Hordge Freeman also explores how black Brazilian families, particularly mothers, rely on diverse strategies that reproduce, negotiate, and resist racism. She frames efforts to modify racial features as sometimes reflecting internalized racism and at other times as responding to material and emotional considerations. Contextualizing their strategies within broader narratives of the African diaspora, she examines how Salvador's inhabitants perceive the history of the slave trade itself in a city that is referred to as the blackest in Brazil. She argues that racial hierarchies may orchestrate family relationships in ways that reflect and reproduce racial inequality, but black Brazilian families actively negotiate these hierarchies to assert their citizenship and humanity.

The Christian Advocate, 1911 The Gregg Writer, 1912 Mark's Story of Jesus Dewey Mulholland, 1999-05-26. A missionary scholar who has been studying and teaching the Gospel of Mark for over forty years, Dr. Mulholland is an insightful expounder of its message, guiding us through this account of Jesus, the mighty miracle worker who is the Messiah of all nations. Informed by the best of academic research, Mulholland's lucid and detailed study will prove eye-opening as well as soul-challenging for its readers. Dr. Vernon C. Grounds, Chancellor, Denver Seminary. During his many years of work as a missionary in Brazil the Rev Dewey Mulholland was enabled to strengthen the church there in a most strategic way In the seminary he helped found in Brasilia the capital he made the inductive study of the Bible in Portuguese central for the training of Christian workers He wanted to teach people how to study the Bible for themselves No boring sermons and Bible lessons from these graduates Studying the Bible the way Mulholland taught them they keep coming up with new exciting insights into the inspired meanings of the Bible Learning to comprehend the biblical text for themselves his students often opened Mulholland s eyes to vital insights into the Marcan meaning This English version of his Marcan commentary makes this accumulation of insights available to us in the Euro American world Seeing the significance that Mark has for people in Latin America helps us to be more enlightened world Christians Dr Daniel P Fuller Senior Professor of Hermeneutics Fuller Theological Seminary The author skillfully combines Mark s emphasis upon Jesus as the Messiah whose Kingdom embraces people of all nations with his portrayal of the Servant who reigns through suffering This message is very relevant to the developing nations where many politicians and clergymen use their positions to dominate I recommend this commentary for it enlarges our understanding of the Messiah and calls upon us to fulfill the task Jesus has delegated to us
